See Emergency Aid Plan Without Special Session

Truman's Conference With Legislative Leaders Seen As Indication Of Trend

CONFERENCE SET FOR THURSDAY

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—President Truman's call for a second conference with legislative leaders strengthened the belief on Capitol Hill today that the administration has decided it will have to provide emergency foreign aid without a special session of Congress.

Sen. Brewster (R) Maine said he believes Mr. Truman and his advisers have "recognized the futility of a special session at this time."

This view also was indicated by Sen. Connally (D) Tex., the administration's ranking foreign policy authority in Congress, who will attend the White House meeting tomorrow afternoon, Connally said.

It may be possible that the various funds were found and made available to Italy and France may be sufficient to tide these major countries over until the regular session of Congress in January.

Session Would Take Time

"Of course, we all know too that action by Congress would consume considerable time—both in committee and on the floor," Connally said he "assumed" Mr. Truman's meeting, originally planned for last Thursday but unexplainably deferred, will include discussion of whether a special session need be called.

Since the president's first meeting with congressional leaders of both parties on Sept. 29, economic

Pa Newc Observes

While hunting near the New Castle water works, Shenango river, this morning, Earl Hammond and D. O. Davies shot a wild duck, it is reported.

Acorn and buckeye hunting is taking up the spare time of a number of youngsters about the city. Squirrels are also getting their share of the acorns and hiding them for future use.

Mrs. Robert Harman of R. D. 7, Mahoningtown, one mile west of Mt. Jackson, reports that sweet peas are blooming in her flower garden, apparently the second crop of the season.

Glancing at a number of menus posted on windows of restaurants in the downtown area Tuesday, Pa Newc learned that many choice meat platters were offered to customers even though it was so-called meatless Tuesday. A week ago, restaurants, festing out the meatless menu, adhered to the presidential suggestion.

Coon hunting parties are proving popular, Pa Newc learns. One group returning from the New Wilmington-Bethel area recently, brought back a 17-pound coon. The animal was caught alive and will be used for training dogs in hunting.

Indications are that all surplus paper that was not picked up Saturday during the paper drive has been picked up. None of the paper was noted lying about as has been the case in previous drives.

Some residents of the city are asking their neighbors to be considerate in the gathering up of leaves on their property. While one resident has his all cleaned up

Poultryless Thursday Decision Comes Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The Citizens' Food Committee will make its decision today on the question of whether to drop poultryless Thursdays from the food conservation program.

(In New York, bakers and restaurant men said "wheatless Mondays" are being discussed by the President's Food Committee. Rye bread would be used on Mondays when wheat cereals, breads and cakes would be omitted.)

(They said Monday was the national selection for such a holiday as it would permit bakers to shut down for a two-day week-end and thus conserve fuel, too.)

Special Meeting For Decision

A seven-member executive group of the committee, headed by Charles Luckman, will hold a special meeting this afternoon to hand down its "life or death" ruling on the controversial poultryless day.

Food committee sources said that there is a strong possibility that there is a strong possibility

Noon Reports Boost Chest Up To $58,001

Workers Report $24,486.55 Additional At Second Meeting Of Campaign

NEXT REPORTS ON TUESDAY AT NOON (BULLETIN)

Community Chest division leaders, making their second report of the current campaign today at noon in The Castleton hotel reported a total of $58,001 collected so far in the drive.

This total puts the campaign past the half-way mark as the workers strive to reach the quota of $102,100 by the end of this month.

Last week's report totaled $33,515, which makes today's amount reported $24,486.

Commends Workers

General Chairman George F. Winter, Jr., commended the leaders and their workers for their efforts so far in the drive and urged them to redouble their efforts by the time the next report will be given Tuesday, Oct. 28, at the hotel.

Alan Barnett's beauty parlor division was the first to go over its quota in the drive, topping the $100 goal by one dollar. Many other divisions are near the top of their set goals.

Four Missing In Crash Of Bomber

ARGENTIA, Nfld., Oct. 22.—(INS)—U. S. naval headquarters at Argentia reported today that four men were rescued and four others are missing in the crash-landing of a big PB4 Y in Placentia harbor.

Although first reports said seven men died in the tragedy, a later check indicated there were only eight persons aboard. The big land plane was on a routine flight from Goose Bay and plunged into the water when it attempted to land on instruments.

Naval authorities said that the plane, coming down at a time when the ceiling was 700 feet, struck land then bounced into the harbor. It sank in 60 feet of water.

Identities of the missing were not disclosed immediately.

The rescued crew members: Lieut. Robert L. Reichert, pilot—bruises and shock. The big land Lieut. Donald A. Miller, copilot—fractured left fore arm and shock.

Ensign Ernest E. Calaway, navigator—shock.

Robert C. Hanse, aviation machinist's mate 2nd class—shock.

Crash Victim Is Still Unconscious

It was revealed today at the Jameson Memorial hospital, that John Angel, aged 16 years, of Detroit, Mich., who was critically injured, Sunday, when a car, which he and a companion, Ralph Schnupp, also of Detroit, were alleged to have stolen in Deleat, O., left the road and struck a tree near Rose Point, is still in an unconscious condition.

Schnupp, it is stated, is making satisfactory improvement.

Keep America Solvent Speaker Martin Pleads

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Keeping America solvent was held out today by House Speaker Joe Martin as the patriotic duty of the Truman Administration.

The Massachusetts Republican leader, in a civic banquet given in Rockford last night to Reps. Noah Mason and Leo Allen, Illinois Republican Congressmen, asserted that it is imperative that President Truman shall tell Congress his spending plans. Martin said:

"Common, ordinary, American horse sense, yes, real patriotism demands that those in control of our government should join with the Republican Congress in keeping this country solvent."

Must Balance Budget
The House speaker declared that the budget must be balanced or the economy of America will collapse. He added:

"We all like to spend money. But the cold facts are that there is only so much money available. The only money the government has to spend is taken from the people in taxes. The more the government spends, the more it is obliged to tax the people.

"The more money we send abroad, the less we can spend at home. And if the spending demands are excessive, then, of course, we cannot reduce taxes, as much as that is essential. We believe our expenditures can be kept down and tax reduction given the people."

Martin, who has just completed a five-week tour of seven western states said that everywhere he has found "enthusiastic support of the efforts of the Republican Congress to put the country back on the road to constitutional government."

Robert Taylor To Testify Today In Red Movie Probe

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Rep. Thomas (R) N. J., chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee today in Hollywood, announced today that screen star Robert Taylor will testify at 2:00 p. m.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Screen star Robert Taylor may give the House Un-American Activities Committee today his version of reports that White House pressure forced him to appear in the controversial wartime picture "Song of Russia."

The motion picture actor was scheduled to be an early witness as the committee's public hearings on alleged communism in Hollywood went into their third day, provided he can arrive from the West Coast in time to testify.

Testimony Awaited

Taylor's testimony was awaited after a day of many developments topped when John C. Moffitt, writer and critic, told the committee that a test pilot was tricked into revealing secret information on a new supersonic military plane to literary agent John Weber who he said was "sent by Communist headquarters in New York to Hollywood."

Rep. Thomas (R) N. J., committee chairman, declared that Taylor will repeat the secret testimony he gave a subcommittee in Los Angeles last May. At that time Taylor, according to Thomas, declared that Lowell Mellett, a wartime coordinator of motion picture activity, delivered an "ultimatum" to him to appear in the movie, Mellett once served as a White House assistant.

Taylor was said to have objected to playing the star role in the movie, but his protest was overruled by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, which produced the picture in 1943. At the time Taylor was waiting for a navy commission.

Chinese Sentence Woman To Death As Asia's 'Mata Hari'

PEIPING, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Yoshiko Kawashima, Chinese-born "mata hari" of Aisa, was sentenced to death by a high court in Peiping today.

The sentence was pronounced after a two-day trial which ended with her conviction on charges of high treason, espionage and aiding Japan's aggression against China since 1931.

Yoshiko pleaded not guilty. Daughter of a Manchurian prince, Yoshiko was adopted at the age of three by a prominent member of Japan's notorious Black Dragon society.

Now 32, she was alleged to have collaborated closely with Gen. Kenji Doihara, originator of numerous ruthless plots against China since the Japanese seizure of Manchuria 16 years ago.

Soviet To Attempt To Wreck Marshall Plan

By NATALIA RENE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Oct. 22.—The Soviet government made public today an announcement by Col. Gen. Andrei A. Zhdanov that Russia will apply "all its strength" to ensuring that the Marshall plan for Europe does not succeed.

The declaration was made by Zhdanov during the meeting of Communist party leaders from nine countries in Poland.

This meeting established the so-called Communist international "information bureau" which will operate out of Belgrade.

Zhdanov is a member of the all-powerful Soviet Politburo and an extremely close associate of Premier Marshal Stalin. He said that Europe "has at present sufficient forces capable to stop this plan of enslavement if they show sufficient will and decision."

New Englanders Battle Against Spreading Fires

Uncontrolled Forest Fires Sweeping Drought-Stricken New England Areas

BOSTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Uncontrolled fires are raging throughout the drought-stricken New England states today as firefighters battled without rest to prevent additional destruction by flames.

Damage from fires in the six-state area was estimated at $3,000,000, with farms, cottages and homes leveled by flames.

The Biddeford-Kennebunk area of Maine was hardest hit. Three hundred homes have been destroyed in the area and damage is estimated at $1,500,000. A shift in the wind saved Kennebunkport, a town of 2,500 persons, from being leveled.

A score of New Hampshire communities were threatened by roaring flames, sweeping through the presidential range.

No Relief In Sight

No relief is in sight, according to the weather bureau, which predicts only slight showers for Friday and warns that brisk winds will continue today in the threatened sections.

The latest serious blaze was in the Waterboro, Me.-Sandwich, N. H., section. The most serious fire is threatening the townships of Newbury, Washington and Bradford in the presidential range area, where hundreds of summer cottages and several small towns lie in the path of the flames.

A 15-mile area in the Fitchburg, Ashby and Ashburnham area was threatened by flames which swept across the state line into New Hampshire.

CONGRATULATE PRINCESS

LONDON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—A message of congratulation to Princess Elizabeth on her forthcoming marriage to Lieut. Philip Mountbatten was introduced today in the House of Commons by Prime Minister Attlee.

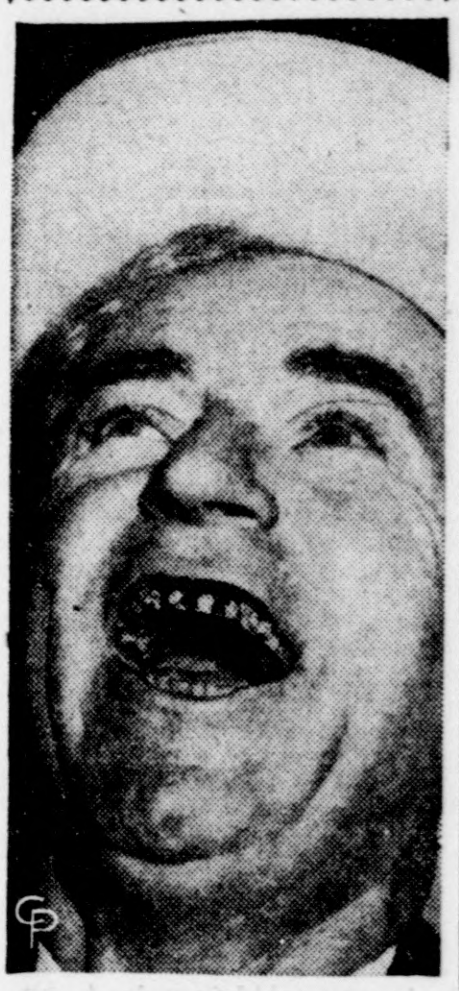

Winston Churchill seconded the motion. The wartime premier said: "From the bottom of our hearts, we wish the good will of the British nation flow out to the princess and the young sailor who soon will be united in the bonds of holy matrimony."

Engineering Feat On Route 422

Another engineering feat on the new Route 422, the "Vesipocket Turnpike," is that of grading the right of way. In some places along the highway the banks reach a height of 50 to 75 feet with a steep incline. To grade these banks it was necessary to run a bulldozer along the top of the banks with a heavy steel cable fastened to a grader part way down the slope. The weight and pull of the bulldozer hold the grader on the side of the slope as shown in the photo above.

Crackdown On Communists In Brazil Started

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Brazil alerted federal police and the military today and began a new crackdown on the outlawed Communist party.

Anti-Communist precautions also were taken in Chile, which joined Brazil yesterday in breaking diplomatic relations with Russia.

Chile went one step further by breaking relations with Czechoslovakia, accusing that country and Russia of fomenting the Chilean mine strike.

Attorney General Luis Gallotti ordered all Brazilian state attorneys to take immediate action to assure "inactivity" of the Communist party in compliance with the anti-Communist ban of last May.

The action came amid growing tension in Rio following last night's anti-Communist outbreaks in which the Soviet embassy and a Communist newspaper were stoned by students. Seven persons were wounded in the rioting.

Georgi Solokov, the Russian charge d'affaires, and four members of his staff were given police protection at the embassy. They are due to leave for Uruguay this week.

Stand By Gun In Musicians Battle In Chicago Theatre

Will Continue To Present 'The Late Christopher Bean' Without Pit Music

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Spokesmen for the Civic theatre stood by their guns today in their battle with the AFL Musicians Union and announced they would continue to present the play, "The Late Christopher Bean," without music.

The battle started last Monday night when the play was presented without a pit orchestra for the first time in 20 years in Chicago.

The eight "stand by" musicians were fired in defiance of James C. Petrillo, music czar, and the union rules which require that eight musicians be present at every theater regardless of whether they performed.

James C. Thompson, president of the Wacker corporation which operates the Civic theatre and the Civic opera house, declared the action was taken under the Taft-Hartley act which bans payment for work not performed.

Thompson said his contract with the union expired last Labor Day and no new contract has been offered or signed. The union, however, charged Thompson with breach of contract.

Reading Police Hunt Escapees

READING, Pa., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Berks county police and state patrolmen intensified the biggest manhunt in Reading's history today for four prisoners who escaped from the county jail.

At least 100 armed searchers patrolled the community and radio broadcasts every 15 minutes warned householders to keep their doors locked. Road blocks were set up across every artery of communication.

Soviet To Open Battle For 'Gag' On World Press

To Begin Offensive In U. N. For Muzzling Press And Radio Of World

U. N. APPROVES BALKAN PATROL

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The Soviet Union is opening a full-scale offensive in the United Nations this afternoon in behalf of its plan, bitterly opposed by UN-sponsored "gag" on the world's press and radio.

Russia's Andrei Vishinsky is planning another vitriolic attack on alleged "war mongers" at the political and security committee session at 3 o'clock.

Several countries will strike back with counter proposals assailing official name-calling by UN diplomats.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall has instructed U. S. Delegate R. Austin to fight for a straight defeat of the Soviet resolution aimed ostensibly at "war mongers" but which might reach anyone discussing the danger of war.

The U. S. will offer no counter-resolution of its own at this time.

U. S. Stand Seen

Austin is expected to point out, however, that the constitution's bill of rights protects the freedom of speech, press, radio and assembly and the "criminal punishment" proposed by Russia would never be accepted by the American people or Congress.

A possibility is seen that Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of America's wartime president, and chairman of the UN human rights commission, may take the floor to answer Vishinsky.

The Russian resolution calls on the United Nations to oblige all countries "under pain of criminal punishment" to prohibit all warlike propaganda and to force all members to take action against this as "a socially dangerous activity."

The United States, Britain, Greece and Turkey were among the countries directly named as particularly responsible for the move.

The debate is expected to be long and acrimonious, second only to that on the Greek issue.

Girl Scouts To Observe Week

Community Sing On Diamond On Monday Night To Be One Of Feature

Sunday, October 26, will mark the opening of Girl Scout Week, when the Girl Scouts of New Castle will join a million and a quarter organization throughout the nation to honor the memory of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Gordon Low.

According to Mrs. Harry Wettich, program chairman of New Castle Girl Scout Council, two special activities will mark this week locally.

On Saturday, Oct. 25, at 11 a. m. troop No. 22 directed by Mrs. Fred Jenkins will present a program over the local radio. Music and interviews will highlight this program.

On Monday evening, New Castle Girl Scouts will entertain shoppers with a community sing to be held on the Diamond. Many Girl Scouts will participate.

If rabbits read in English and they've read the latest news, they probably believe they have a cure for the blues. For week's they've watched the calendar till the hunting season starts, and looked around for safety spots in other, hidden parts. But now the weatherman steps in and doesn't give us rain, and woods and fields are powder dry and likewise is the grain. And so the hunting season may keep cottontails alive, for which they owe somebody thanks—the weather's seventy-five.

Union Firemen Buy Equipment

No Decision Made On Purchase Of Chassis For Truck As Yet, McPheeters States

Announcement is made by President Francis D. McPheeters of the Union fire department, that some of the equipment needed for the department has been purchased, but that additional funds will be needed to buy everything that is needed to equip their truck.

Mr. McPheeters, Julian Miller and Joe Ellsworth have just returned from Indiana, where they purchased the equipment needed to outfit a truck from the Boyer company. However, no chassis has yet been ordered. Bids are being taken and it is expected to make a decision on this matter shortly.

that the "eat no poultry" day will be eliminated from the campaign to save 100 million bushels of grain for European relief.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Brannan predicted in Pittsburgh that poultryless Thursdays will be called off soon, possibly within 24 hours.

Luckman called the meeting of his executive group after the poultry and feed industries proposed a new grain-saving program as a substitute for the poultryless Thursday.

The industry plan for saving grain through strict conservation of feed and culling of flocks also was placed before the cabinet food committee, headed by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, for "appraisal and analysis."

and diplomatic experts have assembled a mass of information on European conditions. Some of this data was given congressional members at a state department conference last week.

Since then, President Truman has added the report on natural resources of Interior Secretary Krug to the record.

Fear What Would Happen
But responsible Democrats on Capitol Hill made it plain that any decision to by-pass a special session would be based upon the fear that such a meeting could not be kept in hand and "on the subject."

The threat of Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., to offer another GOP tax reduction bill if a special session is summoned was cited as an example of what might happen.

One Republican observed that it would be practically impossible to keep the controversy over the Luckman "save food" program out of any special session debate and commented:

"That would be murder."

arising from Communist Union demands for higher wages and the threat of a general strike.

The decision to hasten return of the legislators was taken after an exhaustive debate on the nation's financial position as well as the pay-bill demands, and the ministers agreed on the need of informing parliament of the problems as soon as possible.

Drive On Wage Policy

The Communists, defeated by the De Gaulleists in Sunday's municipal elections, were preparing a new drive against the government's wage policy and were said to be concentrating their efforts to stymie the Marshall plan as well.

Foreign Minister Bidault meanwhile declared De Gaulle's victory would not affect French foreign policy.

Following the cabinet meeting a government spokesman denied that the early summoning of parliament will be for the purpose of a wholesale resignation of ministers.

The spokesman declared that the legislators will be presented with a detailed report on the economic and social situation.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our beloved son and brother, Pvt. John Ed. Wards, killed in France on October 22, 1944.

"Every day brings sweet memories. Every memory brings a tear. We little thought when he left home that he would return no more and leave us here to mourn."

We only know he passed away and could not tell us goodbye. He is not really lost to us, though he has passed away.

In memory that never fades, he'll live with us each day. And in the knowledge that he went bravely without regret. We'll know that he went to God content to do the task he meant."

Former Resident Dies In Seattle

Word has been received here of the death of John L. Preston at his home in Seattle, Wash., on October 20. Mr. Preston was born and raised in New Castle where he attended public schools and he was a graduate of Grove City College.

He entered the service of the government when a young man and was later appointed superintendent of all government radio installation in the United States and the Philippines.

In the fall of 1946 he was retired on years of service. He is survived by his wife, Bess Orem Preston, and two daughters, Mrs. Curtis Privett, of Portland, Ore., and Betty Ann, at home. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. T. A. Preston, of Oak Street, this city, and a sister, Miss Georgia Preston, of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, October 23, from the family residence in Seattle.

The latter caused a deepening of the rift between the East and West powers. It was disposed of in the General Assembly yesterday after a month of continuous wrangling.

The Assembly voted for the establishment of a Balkan border "watch dog" commission to protect Greece against Communist aggression.

The Soviet bloc, led by Russia, announced a boycott of the border group.

The Soviet move to condemn the western nations for war mongering and "gag" the freedom of press, radio and speech is expected by some delegates to prove a boomerang in the long run.

CHILD INJURED

WHEN HIT BY CAR

Little Suzanne Erdeky, aged five years, of New Wilmington, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital for injuries received shortly after six o'clock Tuesday evening, when she ran from behind a parked car and was struck by an automobile operated by Murray Price of Asheville, N. MARRIED TEACHERS
ARE GIVEN OKAY

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Married women now will be accepted as teachers in Pittsburgh's public schools.

The Pittsburgh school board, reversing a 36-year-old policy, last night lifted its ban on hiring of married women for classroom work and announced they would qualify for placement on eligibility lists and considered for appointment.

Shortage of teachers—either married or single—was the reason for the change in policy.

Women sleep more lightly and dream more often than men.

Mrs. George E. Parfitt Speaks At County Federation Luncheon

At the annual fall meeting of the southwestern district of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs, in the First Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, members heard as speaker Mrs. George E. Parfitt, of Tarentum, southwestern district vice president, who brought greetings from the state federation and spoke on "What Is the Federation?"

She told of its formation as an outgrowth of the earliest women's clubs in this state and talked on the work of the federation as expressed through the activities of the various departments such as American Home and Education, Citizenship and Legislation, Conservation - Gardens, International Relations and Peace Service, and Fine Arts. She herself is well-known in the state organization for her active part in the field of public welfare.

In closing she said, "We talk about world peace but peace begins right with each one of us. We have got to know our neighbors and to live with them."

Her address was a stimulating one and received warm applause. She was introduced to the group by Mrs. Wilbur Miller, program chairman.

Dr. R. F. Galbreath also addressed the group of more than 50 on "Pennsylvania". After sketching something of its historical background and the advantages and values peculiar to the Keystone state, he spoke particularly of its educational institutions and heritage. And his conclusion was a thought-provoking and disturbing one, that out of his experience as an educator, he considers Penn-

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA EVENING RECEPTION

October meeting of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority alumnae took place Tuesday evening, when members and guests were delightfully entertained in the home of Mrs. Ray J. Robinson, 22 East Grant street, with Mrs. Orville Brown and Mrs. Norman P. Nelson as co-hostesses.

Following the business meeting the guest of honor, Mrs. Eleanor Arbutnot Schindehutte of Ephrata, regional president of Alpha province of Alpha Gamma Delta, gave an inspiring talk.

Purpose of Mrs. Schindehutte's visit was to inspect the undergraduate chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta at Westminster college. She leaves New Wilmington to inspect Kappa chapter at Allegheny college.

Also an honor guest was Mrs. Elmer Beecher Russell, patroness of the undergraduate chapter at New Wilmington. And another out-of-town guest was Miss Gertrude Paff, psychologist at Polk State school.

Two new members were welcomed by the chapter, Mrs. William R. Anderson, an alumna of Kappa chapter, who recently moved to New Castle from Farrell, and Mrs. Rachel S. Boyd of Mt. Jackson.

The evening was spent informally, with delicious refreshments served at the close, with guests seated at a large table and a number of smaller tables for four.

November meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 25, in the home of Mrs. A. H. Borland, 116 Englewood avenue, with Mrs. Robert Layman and Mrs. John P. Boyles as co-hostesses.

ROSE FERRARE IS ENGAGED TO WED

Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Ferrare of 303 Friendship street announce the engagement of their daughter, Rose Ferrare to John Squicquero, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Squicquero of 111 Franklin avenue, Ellwood City.

The engagement will terminate in an early spring wedding.

WEDDING OF FORMER RESIDENT PLANNED

Of interest here is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Helen Benedict, of Struthers, O., and J. William Jessup, of Youngstown. The wedding will take place at the John Hus Lutheran church, Mahoning avenue, Youngstown, at 7:30 o'clock on Saturday evening, October 25.

Miss Benedict is society editor and writes a column "Here and There" for the Struthers, Campbell and Lowellville papers.

Mr. Jessup is the son of Mrs. Ruberta Gleason Jessup and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gleason, formerly of New Castle. He is a radio engineer at WFMJ in Youngstown.

The young couple plan to make their future home in a newly furnished apartment at 3118 1/2 Hillman street, Youngstown 7, Ohio.

DENTAL AUXILIARY DINNER PROGRAM

An interesting evening was spent by members of the Lawrence County Dental Auxiliary Tuesday evening, when they gathered for their dinner meeting at an inn on the Harlansburg road.

The delicious full-course dinner was served in small tables at 6:30 o'clock and colorful fall decorations were used on each table.

Miss Ida Mae Stille of Pittsburgh and her puppet, Happy, were in charge of the evening's program, and the subject was dental health.

In conjunction with this, Martha Hanna, faculty member of Highland avenue school, spoke on the Pearl club, which instructs the school children in the care of teeth. An effort is being made to have other teachers become interested in this phase of dental hygiene.

Program chairman for the evening was Mrs. Henry Sloan, and her assistant was Mrs. John McEhlan.

In addition to the two speakers, other guests included: Rose Vincent, Pittsburgh; Jean McClain, Ann McCann, June Vincent, Mary Elizabeth Campbell, Jean Gillison, teacher, Highland school, and a Marian Campbell, teacher at Ben Franklin. The latter two will take an active interest in the Pearl club.

November 18 is the next meeting for the auxiliary.

McILVAINE GUILD OPENS FALL SEASON

For its opening meeting of the fall season, McIlvaine guild of the First Presbyterian church was entertained Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. T. M. Love, Wilmington road, with Miss Kathryn Boston, Mrs. Homer Allen, Miss Janet Breneman, Mrs. William Boston, and Miss Margaret Brown as associate hostesses.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. William C. Comstock who, introduced by Mrs. J. J. Alexander, program chairman, told of the great need for leaders of Girl Scout troops. Many more Girl Scout troops can be formed at the present time as soon as women to lead them will volunteer, she said.

Devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Kenneth McClure.

During business, with Mrs. Paul H. Wilson presiding, there was discussion of plans for the church nursery. Letters from Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine, now located in New York City, were read by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Frank Eicholz.

Afterward tea was served from the dining table prettily decorated with a centerpiece of yellow and white mums and lighted orange candles. Mrs. Paul H. Wilson and Mrs. Samuel W. Perry, Jr., poured.

Next meeting will be November 18 when Mrs. Paul G. Dingley, Mrs. Carlton Ferris, Mrs. Edwin O. Feass, and Mrs. L. Paul Friend will be hostesses.

MAHONINGTOWN CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Mahoningtown Garden club met for a program and election of officers in the home of Mrs. H. C. Cowley, Madison avenue, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with Mrs. E. C. Hulbert as co-hostess.

On the program was a very interesting paper on "Foliage Plants" given by Mrs. Raymond F. Horschler. This was followed later by an exchange of house plants, begonia, ivy, Joseph's Coat, etc., in charge of Mrs. E. L. Ruehle and Mrs. W. F. McClurg.

Following a report of the nominating committee, the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. E. L. Ruehle; first vice president, Mrs. Arthur M. Brown; second vice president, Mrs. G. E. Shaffer; recording secretary, Mrs. G. G. Horschler; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. C. Cavany; treasurer, Mrs. R. C. Cooper; member-at-large, Mrs. W. C. Patterson.

Answer to roll call was "Name Your Birth Month Flower and Jewel".

To Mrs. C. E. Dungan, a member who plans to leave soon to spend the winter in Glendale, Calif., a farewell remembrance from the club will be presented, it was announced by Mrs. A. M. Brown, who presided.

Bouquets of flowers, asters and petunias from the hostess' garden were placed about the house and on display was a Duvalia radiata cactus plant in bloom.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. Ralph M. Scowden of 109 East Clayton street on November 19.

MRS. S. G. STAATS GIVES BOOK REVIEW

Excellent was the book review, given by Mrs. Samuel G. Staats, Tuesday evening, when the Baldwin class of Highland U. P. church gathered in the assembly room of the church for their October session.

Mrs. Staats chose Agnes Sligh Turnbull's late book "The Bishop's Mantle" for her review. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. A. H. Batten who later presented her with a gift of appreciation in behalf of the group. Mrs. Staats responded graciously.

Earlier in the evening Mrs. J. A. Sommer conducted a timely workshop period. Mrs. S. Garvin Ligo led group singing with Mrs. A. C. Allen serving as accompanist.

Mrs. Batten presided at the business session, when plans were made for a dinner Tuesday evening, December 16, at the church. Mrs. D. L. Buckley and her committee will be responsible for the Christmas event.

Miss Grace McNulty later invited the group to the dining room, where she was assisted by her committee in serving a tempting lunch at tables, tastefully decorated with arrangements of autumn flowers.

C. R. GILLETTE IS ACCORDED HONOR

Returning east for the first time since his childhood, Chester R. Gillette of Monterey, Calif., son of Mrs. Ella Reynolds Gillette of Poland, O., and the late George Gillette, was welcomed by members of his family when they gathered Sunday afternoon and evening in the home of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burns, New Wilmington.

Hours were spent in an informal manner and at 5:30 o'clock a buffet supper was served to the 35 guests.

Attending from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Reynolds and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Dieffenderfer, Howard A. Reynolds and family, and Mrs. Matthew Hoffman and family.

Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Reynolds of Zelle, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gearhart and family of Cleveland, Mrs. David Thompson and Mrs. George Gillette of Poland, O., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harry of Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds and family of Ellwood City and Mrs. Mona Brummitt of Evansville, Ind.

Mr. Gillette made the trip here by plane, and expects to leave on Thursday for his home, and he will be accompanied by his mother.

J. O. Y. CLASS HAS HALLOWEEN PARTY

J. O. Y. class of First Baptist church gathered Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Orville Grossman, 606 Spruce street, where a masquerade party was enjoyed.

Prizes were awarded for various costumes, the funniest, Mrs. Jessie Joseph; hardest to guess, Mrs. W. C. Imhoff, and the person who stayed still the longest, Mrs. G. H. Winger. Trophies for games went to Mrs. Montgomery Rodgers, Mrs. Paul Fombelle and Mrs. Joseph.

Mrs. David Harlan, Mrs. W. C. Imhoff, Mrs. Charles Lane and Mrs. Harold Cotton composed the entertainment committee.

After a box lunch was served the group adjourned until Friday evening, November 7, when Mrs. Howard Frew, 328 Highland avenue, will entertain.

E. N. C. Club To Dine

E. N. C. club members have been invited to the home of Mrs. John Miller, Jackson avenue, Youngstown, for 6 o'clock dinner on Thursday evening. Cars will leave the C. E. Turner market at five o'clock.

NORA LANDIS CIRCLE GUESTS FOR MEETING

Members of the Nora Landis circle of the First Baptist church were guests of Mrs. B. F. Johnson in her home, East Wallace avenue, for their regular monthly meeting on a recent evening.

Speaker was Miss Ruth Swanson, who plans to leave soon for mission work with children in South Carolina. She told of the work she expects to do there.

Musical feature of the program was two vocal duets by Alice Weir and Eleanor Howell, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Clare Lutz.

Mrs. Frances Weir was program leader and devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Howard Frew.

A lunch was served with Mrs. Alex Gardner, Mrs. Raymond Mc-

Cartney and Mrs. Charles Gearin as the hostess committee.

November meeting of the circle will be with Mrs. Frank Bruner, 134 Boyles avenue.

TO CURB AIR TRAGEDIES

They were a fortunate 69 men, women and children who came into Boston Harbor on the Coast Guard cutter Bibb, whose heroic crew had rescued them from the wallowing Bermuda Sky Queen off Newfoundland.

But for the steadfast courage of the Bibb's captain and men and the calm efficiency of the plane's pilot, the world would have been shocked by another harrowing tragedy of air and sea. The happier outcome in this case does not lessen the necessity for swift, accurate inquiry into all its phases and the early adoption of such measures that perilous situations of this character may be averted.

One of the survivors remarked that all except three of the plane's adult passengers signed a declaration asking "why planes of this type are allowed to fly." The issue is not on this point alone, though it may be important, but in the fact that unsatisfactory air travel standards and regulations require early correction. CAB authorities have set their inquiry to begin October 30. The investigation ought to be speeded. It's time all loose ends of air regulation and control are eliminated.

DREAM OF BOYHOOD

Austin Butcher, Kansas country editor, admits that all of his boyhood ambitions have not been realized. His principal frustration is in the fact he did not become a railroad engineer.

"We still would rather be a railway locomotive engineer than President of the United States," he confesses in a recent issue of his Altoona Tribune. His ambition was not unusual, having been shared by millions of boys throughout the year.

Mr. Butcher is of that generation which saw great developments and changes in the nation's railroads. When he first had a hankering to become an engineer there was considerable glamor to the job. Locomotives were smaller, simple in operation. Trains were short and easy to handle.

Railway men as a class were outstanding because they were men of action and movement. To the average boy there was nothing more exciting than the smoke and clatter of a passing train.

Today the men who operate the vast power plants on American railways are highly trained individuals, who insist there is neither glamor nor romance in the job. Entrusted to their care are hundreds of lives, fortunes in equipment. Schedules must be maintained. Speed is the essence of their vocation.

Were Mr. Butcher permitted to ride in the cab of one of the steam or Diesel giants he might have no envy for the man at the throttle. It is quite possible he would prefer to be President instead.

"LOOK TO THE STARS"

Dr. Annie Jump Cannon was a gracious lady with her eyes on the stars, and she brought more than her share of fame to Harvard University. She was the most famous woman astronomer in the world. Forty-four years of her distinguished career were spent at the Harvard Observatory in Cambridge, Mass., where she had classified more than 400,000 stars, more than any other person in the world. Her greatest single achievement was the classification of a quarter of a million stars to make up the famed Henry Draper catalogue for international use—a work that won her the Henry Draper Medal of the National Academy of Science in 1931. She died in 1941.

Now a committee is planning to honor Miss Cannon by raising funds for a memorial scholarship at the University of Delaware. Others hope they will succeed, for Annie Jump Cannon bequeathed a philosophy the world could use right now. "In these days of great trouble," she said in 1939, "it is good to have something outside our own planet, something fine and distant and comforting to troubled minds. Let people look to the stars for comfort, and find solace as others have."

This is the time of year when baseball seems to linger in the football field.

Guided missiles capable of spanning the widest ocean are the latest development in the brave new world.

Britain's fumbling Attlee urges the people to work harder. Churchill called it sweat, and lost the premiership.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

Britons Worse Off In Peace Than War

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Now, in the third year after the war's end, the British people are putting up with scarcities and restrictions greater than those of the war. For everyone except a few spivs and racketeers, life is harsh, dull, monotonous—an existence not far from the line of survival.

The new austerity regulations have come on top of a standard of living that seemed, when measured against either peacetime or wartime America, to be bleak indeed. No more foreign travel. No more gasoline except for the barest necessity of going to and from work. The meager food ration is being cut and there are promises of further cuts to come.

Fuel Is Concern

The concern of Britons everywhere on the eve of winter is the fuel supply. Reserves of coal are said to be somewhat larger than they were at the beginning of last winter, with its unprecedented cold. The disastrous effects of that winter are still being felt in terms of delayed industrial recovery.

It has taken the Labor government nearly three months to reach an agreement with the miners for longer hours. The five-day week was introduced while British coal production was substantially under England's minimum needs here at home. The total amount mined in 1947 will be 4,000,000 tons short, even though agreement on longer hours has now been finally reached.

Beginning Nov. 1, the miners will work either a half-hour a day longer or an extra shift on Saturday. Even the liberal London News Chronicle was provoked to say: "The fact that the summer has been mercifully prolonged and that stocks are substantially higher than they were at this time last year encourages us to hope that the nation may just scrape through this winter. But it will be a close thing—especially in view of expected transport difficulties—and there is not the slightest ground for complacency."

Pitiful Commentary

"Yet what pitiful commentary on official dilatoriness this business has been! It was nearly three months ago that Mr. Bevin (the foreign minister) first raised the question of longer hours in the mines. The prime minister launched the negotiations between the Coal Board and the National Union of Miners a fortnight later. The hope was that the agreement would be in operation by September. As the ordinary Briton knows full well, the delay will mean cold homes and offices. The memory of the miseries of last February and March is very vivid."

The British see their ration chipped away as a consequence of far-distant events over which they have no control. Thus, because of the strike of Canadian meat-packing workers, Minister of Food John Strachey has announced that the bacon ration will be cut from two ounces a week to one ounce. This means that the working man's "bit of bacon," on which he puts a high value, will be a mere tantalizing bite.

One is told by one's hostess in the country, with an implied reproach, that American buyers have paid a higher price for all the sardines in the Portuguese market. Therefore this small supplement, which could be bought "off ration" to vary a monotonous diet, will be missing during the coming winter.

Earth Combed For Food

The Food Ministry has combed the earth—or, rather, the empire, where sterling is a substitute for dollars—for foods to fill the gap. As a result, some strange things are appearing on British menus. One is whale steak. Housewives report that if you cook it with onions, you can conceal, or nearly conceal, its oily, fishy taste.

The latest substitute from abroad is canned snook, which is expected to arrive in sizeable quantities from South Africa. Snook is what Americans call barracuda, a fierce shark like fish that is sometimes called the tiger of the sea.

The hard-pressed people in these islands can still laugh at their plight. The announcement of the coming of snook provoked a rash of cartoons and jokes, many of them at the expense of Strachey, who somewhat superciliously announced that he had "been informed" that snook was "palatable and nutritious."

But for many the reality is too grim for laughter. Single people living alone on one ration book know something very like constant hunger. The pinch is acute on (Continued on Next Page)

The Parent Problem

REAL MEANING OF A DEMOCRACY

There has been much loose thinking, talking and writing under the name of democracy. Often the impression given is that liberty of the individual carries with it no obligation of him to the group; that it guarantees freedom without responsibility. When before the last war many thousands of high school students were asked what democracy meant to them, nearly all gave "freedom" as their answer. Very few added "responsibility."

Now freedom without responsibility would soon result in anarchy. There must be some social control in our democratic form of government—there must be law and order. In a true democracy the individual is guaranteed freedom just as soon as and as long as he can enjoy this freedom without infringing on the freedom of others. In a totalitarian state he practically never reaches the state of freedom.

Too Much Freedom

Also in the home and school democracy often has been interpreted as freedom only. Therefore, to many persons, democracy in the home or school has meant more freedom and self-expression without regard for the freedom and expression of other members of the home or school. As a result, many parents endeavoring to have a democratic home have tried to abandon control and to let the child, regardless of his preparation for self-control, do about as he pleases. Some teachers have likewise falsely interpreted democracy with similar results.

In order to guarantee democracy in the home or school there must be some controls guided by the parent and teacher respectively, which controls can and ought to be relaxed gradually as the child acquires sufficient self-control and is able to assume responsibility for such, even of helping draw up rules for controlling the whole family, whole class or school. Always within the limits of these necessary controls there is a wide rich field for respecting the rights of each child as an individual person.

Home And School

In the field of relations between the home and school democratic procedure recognizes that the school must have certain regulations, as regarding attendance, for example, which the home must recognize; that, moreover, the home has certain inherent rights with which the school shall not interfere. But beyond such few limitations the width of freedom for mutually persuasive measures is almost endless.

From Me To You

By MESEKALL

Do you use chewing gum? Now be honest with yourself . . . we have questioned many on this subject and they tell us that they do . . . and then some say no, never. Others say, only in the privacy of their home. But just you check around and see when and where people use the chicle.

* Chewing gum is good for your gums, jaws and digestion . . . but we do believe there is a time and place for its use . . . Those who have as a job, clerking, we believe should leave gum chewing to a time when they are not waiting on customers. Some places of business have rules that prohibit sales peoples from chewing while selling. Some individuals don't need rules . . . they have personal pride and thus refrain from mumbling their words through gum.

* The other evening we stood near a theatre entrance and watched the people as they came up to the box office . . . nine out of ten were making with the chewing gum. With the majority of the chewers being women.

* These people were relaxing . . . fine . . . they weren't selling . . . and the only way they could be objectionable to anyone would be by chewing the gum as they chewed. And that brings up the problem just how do people chew? Some are very careful, they chew slowly and when they speak to their friends they tuck the gum away into a hollow tooth and speak clearly . . . some others can't seem to handle the gum and they let it slap around on the tip of the tongue.

* A great majority can't chew without opening their mouth between every bite down . . . these are the people who not necessarily offend with cracking but certainly don't enhance their looks. Always reminds us of a cow chewing her cud. The slow mechanical type and the fast nervous type are really something to watch . . . and the ones too who can't keep their fingers from helping the jaws . . . we call em the taffy pulling type.

* This is the USA . . . remember . . . where anyone can express his views.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

You have probably all heard that old wheeze about the little New York girl who had lived in a tenement all her twelve years.

One day her father took her out into the country and she saw a cow for the first time in her life.

"What is that, Daddy?" she asked.

"That is a cow."

"And what do they use it for?"

"That is where the milk comes from."

"Oh, Daddy, that isn't so. You know darn well milk comes from cans."

Well, the only thing I ever knew about milk coats is that they come from stores and that they cost a heck of a lot of money.

But the other day, as I told you, I had to make a speech at the Kiwanis club, I stopped over in Hazleton, and Mike Coil, of the Hazleton Standard-Sentinel, who rode over to Berwick with me, suggested that we stop at Stanley Genetti's milk ranch, which was right on the way.

"A milk ranch?" I exclaimed in wonder. "That I would like to see."

So we stopped at the milk ranch, and I wish you could have been with me.

A big black Great Dane dog greeted us with growls and ominous barks. Her two pups—one black, one brindle—tried to imitate their mother, but weren't very successful.

But the noise attracted the man who runs the ranch for Stanley and he took us through the place.

You know what milk coats cost. I have always wanted to buy my wife one but could never afford it.

But here, right before my eyes, were about seven hundred of the little animals—more than $50,000 worth, the manager told me, all ready to be stripped and made into coats.

There were silver mink and platinum mink and beautiful dark brown mink and even white mink. Each had its own little cage, and each cage had a little mouse in back and a little water trough in front.

They were cute little devils, and I felt kind of sorry to think that in about a month or so they would all be skinned and sent to market, to adorn some female who would never realize how many deaths her luxury has caused.

(But do human beings ever think of that?)

After we saw the mink ranch, the fellow took us over to another enclosure where Genetti raises foxes for the fur market. Here are another fortune in furs, but I didn't like the foxes. They looked mean and snarled and hissed and made a lot of threatening noises just like Vishinsky in the United Nations.

On the way out I asked the manager, "Do you keep these little minks out in the cold all the time?" "Yes, we do," he said. "But don't they freeze?" "No," he answered. "They wear mink coats." (Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The World and the Mud Puddles

AS ORIGINALLY CHRISTENED

The big dam on the Colorado River built for the purpose of furnishing water and electric power to California, particularly to southern California and Arizona, was begun while Mr. Hoover was President of the United States, and appropriately the dam was called the "Hoover Dam". Prompted by political jealousy, Harold Ickes, who had become Secretary of the Interior under the New Deal regime, was instrumental in changing the name to "Boulder Dam" and so, Peggy McCarty, twenty, a beauty from Tacoma, Washington, found out it's now Hoover Dam.

Peggy was named "Miss Boulder Dam" at the Disabled American Veterans convention holding sessions in Las Vegas, but she was denied permission to pose on the dam until she changed the ribbon to read "Miss Boulder City".

Art Rydell, public information officer for the Bureau of Reclamation, said the decision was made in compliance with specific orders from Washington that nothing associated with the dam henceforth is to use the name "Boulder".

Congress recently reversed itself and changed the dam's name back to Hoover, as it was originally.

Changing the name, in the first place, from "Hoover Dam" to "Boulder Dam" was a very low-down, mean piece of business and it is probably the smallest despicable act of the Roosevelt administration, but let anyone beware now—it's the "Hoover Dam".

Hints On Etiquette

It is correct in table service to serve the diners from the left and to remove the dishes also from the left. Drinks are served on the right side, and to avoid danger of knocking glasses over, dishes should be removed as well as served from the left.

King Gustav of Sweden killed two bull elk and a heifer with his first three shots on a hunting trip. This may explain why there are fewer revolutions in Sweden than in South America.—Arkansas Gazette.

The American Will To Win

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Whoever knows the American people knows their vim for competition, their passion for success. Every type of leader, from football coach to President, knows how to appeal to this American will to win. Such appeals always make use of another American characteristic—our quick and ardent sentimentality. Taken in combination, these traits yield up a formula that is good for promoting everything from a world series to a world war. The formula reads—the challenge of contest plus sentimental conviction equals tremendous output of American energy and enthusiasm.

Formula Holds Great Possibilities

The formula holds great possibilities today for the shaping of world affairs. A leader who can fuse American emotionalism with American determination to win can unleash energies to which nothing is impossible. Here, as with atomic energy of the physical world, is a great opportunity for good and evil. Properly directed, the will to win can accomplish such wonders as only the dreamers of the human race have ever envisioned—conquests over poverty, suffering, tyranny and self-destruction. But the will to win can also be perverted by misdirection. Wrong leadership in a nation like ours seldom arises from villainy. But ignorance, impatience, bigotry, short-sightedness and faint-heartedness can do the same damage. The crying need today is for giving direction to the American potential for success.

Readers Aware Of Struggle

That is what I tried to say in previous articles which contrasted the urge to war and the urge to peace. Letters from readers have expressed an awareness of this struggle between the conflicting urges. How will the contest be resolved? It will be resolved by a working-out of the formula cited above. Difficulties plus determination equal successful accomplishment. An America which wants peace—wants it with a passion—will find out how to get it.

What are the means of achieving such a miracle? They are practical and commonplace. The best of our leaders are already putting three of them into practice:

1. Political savvy. Here is an asset which we are only beginning to exploit in the world parliament now sitting at Lake Success. The arts, the dodges, the trickeries of every-day politics were never better calculated to serve us well. Let no one despite the workability of collective bargaining in smoke-filled committee rooms, of horse-trading in the corridors, of pork-barrel patronage. These are the ways of peace-time politics and so much the better if we apply them on a global scale. Cajolery, flattery, and compromise had their places in the making of our own Constitution. They are justifiable means toward a noble end, and many a recalcitrant delegate can be taken in without knowing it.

2. Economic supremacy. Simply by throwing our industrial genius into the battle for peace we shall have done much. This is not to say that we must squander gifts in an effort to buy friendships. Much better we can establish partnerships that create a community of interest. Prejudice and distrust have a way of evaporating when common interests are served. Both the successes and the failures within the British Empire prove the efficacy of shared prosperity. An economy which fails over a period of years, as Russia's has, to provide for its own, surely carries the seeds of its eventual destruction.

3. Democratic good will. Faith in the fellowship of man is not entirely a matter of religion. Love of humanity—even when successfully faked by political hacks and traveling salesmen—is a proven agency for accomplishment. The pious virtues answer just as readily to their street corner names. What is patience but another word for persistence? We must not only wait for our good will to open the way to international understanding. We must keep knocking at the door, keep believing that some day it will open a crack so that we can get a foot inside.

Here are difficulties, to be sure, and here is a challenge to contest. But the will to win peace—if it is a genuine passion—will not take "no" for an answer.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

A tall, stern-faced man with a positive hatred of the limelight came out of France's municipal elections as the leading figure in French politics today.

And history once again reversed itself.

For France's man of the hour was Gen. Charles Andre Joseph Marie DeGaulle—the man of the tanks and of the airplanes who warned his nation in 1938 and 1939 that it was ill-equipped, poorly commanded, and unable to fight a war against the huge Nazi legions that stood at Sedan and Metz.

Had Been In Oblivion

DeGaulle had been plunged into virtual oblivion by the quirks of French politics.

He made speeches during the summer at Strasbourg and elsewhere which caused ripples upon the domestic and international scene.

But entirely within his character, he stayed in the background. He designated his party as a "rally" movement around the flag of France, around the Louvre and the Place De La Concorde—around, in fact the landmarks of a nation and an empire that he feels is beset with the danger of Communist overthrow.

The French elections are not yet conclusive.

Trend To Continue

More balloting is scheduled for next week-end. But it seems unlikely that these votes will affect the trend in any serious manner.

The victories accredited to the DeGaulle organization have been identified clearly as rebuffs to the newly established Communist international organization operating out of Belgrade.

It was clear from the first Kremlin communique announcing creation of the "information bureau" that a primary aim was to win the elections in France and Italy as prerequisites to defeat the Marshall plan of aid to Europe.

Setback For Moscow

This is the first setback for Moscow.

What it will mean to present and future composition of the French government headed by President Vincent Auriol, Premier Paul Ramadier and Foreign Minister Bidault is open to question.

Latest reports from the famed old clock room of the foreign office on the Quai D'Orsay indicate that Bidault's faction will seek a working agreement with the forces of DeGaulle.

In other words, a coalition—the same sort of arrangement that many British forces have been searching for an answer to their own deep economic difficulties for months on end.

Health Talks

NOSTALGIA

Nostalgia is a pretty big word. It means "I want to go back." It means homesickness.

Anyone who has never been homesick does not know what it means. It affects the body and the mind. A person who is homesick cannot eat and cannot sleep. It is a good illustration of the relation of mind and body.

If a boy is homesick, he is cured the minute he gets home.

If he cannot go home, he is pretty miserable for a good while.

He wants to see little Joe. He wants to see Mom. He thinks of home night and day.

"Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home."

New Display Of Relics Planned

State Historical And Museum Commission Outlines Plan For Display Changes

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The State Historical and Museum commission has outlined a scientific display plan for exhibiting relics of early Pennsylvania. Some exhibits, stored for years in the dingy basement of the museum building, will be dusted off and placed in cases as individual items or part of a series of displays showing the state's growth. Other items which have been on view for years will be put back on the shelf to make way for heretofore undiscovered museum pieces. The commission announced plans to change displays often and present a varied picture of the state's history. Disclosure of the new system scotched rumors circulating the state capitol that the commission was throwing out such old relics that required considerable space as a "Coney Island wagon." The wagon, the commission reported, was being moved to the Daniel Boone home-stand in Berks county maintained by the state. Nothing will be given away, sold or disposed of in any way, officials said. All items are indexed and guarded carefully.

The plan to alternate exhibits stemmed from a reduction in space allotted for actual museum purposes in the museum building located in the cluster of state buildings. Much of the first floor is occupied by offices of the commission, augmented two years ago by archives and historical divisions, while a large section of the second floor was reserved for the legislative reference bureau. Some of the basement has been taken over by the Commerce department for art crafts. During the war part of the museum building was turned over to the defense council as headquarters for salvage campaigns.

AFL and CIO unions have sought time off for voting for members during the municipal election November 4. The executive committee of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor (AFL) made the request one of its chief issues in the drive for repeal of the Taft-Hartley act. CIO unions customarily have sought voting time for members in hardship cases. This year, the matter will be taken up with employers in all cases, union spokesmen reported.

A movement reportedly was underway to have the $100,000 Gimbels Pennsylvania art collection housed permanently at Harrisburg. The collection will consist of 100 pictures portraying every phase of Pennsylvania life. The first of the series was unveiled at the Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts October 13 at a ceremony opening "Pennsylvania Week." The canvases were the work of 14 outstanding artists. They included a view of the state capitol, a farm scene near Harrisburg, a view of the famous stone arch railroad bridge at Rockville near Harrisburg.

The Senate and House Appropriations committees have accelerated a joint study of state government costs in the general assembly's campaign to place new emphasis on its check and balance function. A 26-member sub-committee of the group will meet monthly at the state capitol to survey expenditures for education, institutions and other top expense items.

Wolves Party Attracts Crowd

Ladies Honored At Autumn Dinner-Dance; Attorney Barco, Meadville, Speaker

Upwards of over 90 members of the Wolves club, their friends and guests were entertained at an enjoyable autumn dinner-party and dance Tuesday evening, the occasion honoring the wives of members on "ladies' night." The affair was held at The Castleton.

Starting the festivities was the serving of a delicious full course dinner at 7:15 o'clock on small tables, cafe style. Lighted pumpkins centered each table and throughout the room halloween decorations provided the gay atmosphere. A huge autumn floral piece centered the speakers' table.

Stetson music was provided by Marjory Van, pianist, and the invocation prior to the meal was given by Nicholas Casandra. Afterwards, pep singing was enjoyed with Andrew Mastriani leading.

President Angelo Frediani presided briefly extending a welcome, and introduced the new guests. Mrs. Rose Fazzone, president of the Wolves auxiliary, a newly formed organization, made brief remarks and announced that the auxiliary's charter is expected soon.

Program Chairman Paul Failla capably took charge, announcing the program. The principal speaker of the evening, former Deputy Attorney General George Barco of Meadville, Pa., was presented. Attorney Barco gave an interesting address on the new community property law and its actual application in the affairs of husband and wife, as of the date September 1, 1947. The law will permit husband and wife to declare their income as a joint income, and thus allow for a lower income tax. However, from all this, there are many intricate and detailed technicalities which arise from the new law, and these Mr. Barco explained in an interesting manner.

The pretty, young vocalist of the evening was a local miss who did very well for herself, Miss Peggy Izzo. Her selections were delightful and well given. Mrs. Olga Batisse, a former resident and now of Richmond, Calif., who is visiting in the city, also favored with many selections during the evening, her songs being given "a la Sophie Tucker" style.

The highlight of the evening was a pantomime sketch, "Pierre and Paulette", presented by Frank Cozza and Fred DeCarbo. A Mr. Bones and Mr. Jones act followed, presented by James Lombardo and Angelo Frediani, with the latter also being the master of ceremonies. The two also sang a duet.

A local popular orchestra provided the pleasing dance selections, and dancing continued until late in the evening.

The committee responsible for the evening's success included the program chairman, Paul Failla, and Angelo Frediani, James Lombardo, Frank Cozza, James Carvella, Fred DeCarbo and Frank Sgaraglino.

All this means that whenever parents meet their child's teacher they shall exercise toward her the nice amenities of social grace; that the teacher shall do likewise toward the child's parents, no matter how uncouth or polished they may be, no matter how well or poorly they speak, no matter how they are dressed. That, furthermore, both teacher and parents shall so deal with the child that he will sense this democratic relationship between his parents on one hand and his teacher on the other.

So whether we are parents or teachers, ours is not to condemn each other but to try to understand each other better, and together guide him into doing his best at books and at living, and working with others at school and outside of school, of growing as a good citizen everywhere.

pensioners and the great bulk of the middle class, who cannot buy the few luxury foods available at high prices.

For families with children, the food situation is not so difficult. Children get extra foods and free cod-liver oil. For workers taking one meal a day at a factory canteen, it is easier.

Always there is the extraordinary patience and discipline of the British people. Their self-discipline insures an equal distribution of the food that is to be had. The fact is particularly impressive in contrast to the black market countries of the continent.

Canada To Lift Price Ceilings On Some Grains

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 22.—(INS)—The Canadian government announced that effective today price ceilings are removed on oats, barley and screenings.

Price ceilings on meat and meat products (except animal fats) also are being removed.

The subsidies on grains used for livestock feeding amounting to 25 cents per bushel on wheat and barley and 10 cents per bushel on oats are being discontinued.

To ensure fulfillment of Canada's overseas commitments of livestock products, and in view of the shortage of feed grain in Canada, the government reiterated its policy of allowing no exports of oats and barley during the current crop year.

Are You Interested in Good Government?

As a candidate for County Commissioner and believing in the integrity of our Democratic system of government, I feel the citizens of Lawrence County should know something about their candidate for this high office.

I was born in the city of New Castle on October 23, 1914. After completing a four year course at the New Castle Trade School in the machinist trade, I successfully completed four years of high school graduating from New Castle High in January, 1934.

I believe a good government is judged by the service it renders its constituency. If elected County Commissioner I will follow a policy of providing industrial sites, tax free, for fifty years, in order to provide jobs for the people of Lawrence County.

Various games were enjoyed with trophies being awarded Miss Margaretta Hess and Mrs. Harry Richardson.

Dainty refreshments were served buffet style with Miss Lenore Ann Dukes, Miss Patricia Quinn and Mrs. Joseph Dukes as aides. Each guest received a walnut, containing a miniature squirrel which revealed the wedding date of Miss Dukes and John W. Tillia, Jr.

The young couple will be united in marriage at an open ceremony which will be performed Thursday evening, November 6, at 7 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran church. Mr. Tillia is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Tillia, of 1409 Delaware avenue.

Following serving, the honoree opened the shower of useful as well as beautiful gifts which was presented to her for use in her new home.

PATTERSON GROUP HAS OCTOBER MEET

Patterson auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church assembled on Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Gerald Earl, Walmo. Miss Georgiana McNeese was worship period leader.

Mrs. Norma Marlin, a former missionary to India, spoke on the customs of that country. Mrs. Marlin, attired in the dress of a native India woman, illustrated her talk by showing a number of curios.

During the business session, conducted by Mrs. Earl Dufford, president, it was announced that the group will take articles for a special project to their next assembly Tuesday evening, November 18.

Refreshments were served later by Mrs. Earl with Mrs. Mearl Brunton, Mrs. Gyla Gricks, Mrs. R. Z. Galbreath and Mrs. S. R. Fitzgerald as joint hostesses.

Wedding Attendants

In the wedding party of Miss Louise Fernandez, of Donora, for her wedding Saturday afternoon when she became the bride of Chester Kowalczyk, also of Donora, were two New Castle girls, Miss Patricia O'Leary, who was maid of honor, and Miss Betty Brown, who was a bridesmaid. Both girls were classmates of the bride in the September graduating class of the New Castle hospital school of nursing. Also a bridesmaid was Miss Josephine Algier, of Donora.

The wedding took place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Holy Name of Mary church in Donora and was followed by a dinner and reception in St. Joseph's hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Kowalczyk will make their home in Cleveland, O.

Pandoras Club

Pandoras club members met in the South Mill street club rooms, Mrs. Ralph Staph and Mrs. Pat Julian, as hostesses.

Games were played, prizes going to Mrs. Joseph DeLillo, Mrs. Frank Palumbo, Mrs. Rocco Litrenta and Mrs. Stanley Litrenta. The wedding anniversary of Mrs. Rocco Litrenta was honored, and she received a secret pal gift; and Mrs. Joseph DeLillo, a birthday gift.

A dainty lunch was served later in the evening.

November 4, is the meeting with Mrs. Arthur Fiedler and Mrs. Leo Vernino as hostesses.

Gilliam-Robinson

Miss Delores M. Gilliam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Lyle of 2394 East 85th street, Cleveland, O., was united in marriage at a pretty ceremony at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atkinson, 528 West State street, this city, on Saturday afternoon, October 18, at 3 o'clock when she became the bride of Raymond E. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Green of Youngstown, O.

Rev. Agnes E. Guthrie, pastor of the Church of Truth, officiated at the ceremony using the single ring service, in the presence of the immediate family and friends. Ferns and flowers decorated the room.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a gown of white chiffon, princess style. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Donna Owens was maid of honor.

Richard Mulden, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. A wedding dinner was served to 50 guests and a reception was held in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Booker, 269 West Falls street.

Dispensing with a wedding trip for the present the newlyweds are at home at 528 West State street.

Mr. Robinson, who served two years with the army, is employed at the National Radiator company.

W. B. A. Review Meets

Woman's Benefit Association Review No. 98 met for business and a social time in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday evening when plans were made for a Thanksgiving party on November 17.

Cards and games, in charge of Mrs. Ruth Shaffer and Mrs. McKinley, furnished entertainment later and numerous prizes were given.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Viola Nelson and Mrs. Cora Fisher.

Next meeting will be in two weeks.

American Home Watchmen

Members of the American Home Watchmen gathered Tuesday evening in McGown hall, East Washington street, for their regular business meeting with Mrs. Edward Calvert in charge.

Following the business session.

Two Small Fires Tuesday Afternoon

Firemen were called out by alarms for two small fires Tuesday afternoon and for a false alarm.

At 1:45 o'clock they were summoned to Wildwood avenue, but found no fire there.

At 5:15 p. m. firemen were called to the home of Edward Kelley of 110 Phillips street, where workmen put a gas line under the floor, shorted the wiring, setting fire to the floor. Damage was around $5. Assistant Chief Harper reported.

At the same time fourth ward firemen were called out when a short in the battery of a car owned by Opal McKnight set fire to the seat. The damage was slight.

Thank God For Muscle-Rub!

WRITES MR. ROBERT JORDAN, COLON, MICH.

Advises every sufferer from Rheumatic-Arthritic-Sciatic-Neuritic Pains to try Muscle-Rub.

Here's the true story of a man who took treatments, used all kind of remedies for his sciatic, neuritic pains without being helped in the slightest degree. Mr. Robert Jordan of Colon, Mich., suffered agony from pains in his hip-knee-calf of legs. The pain at times was so bad that he couldn't sit down. He tried several different treatments, many different medicines, all of which did him no good. He couldn't work. Life was misery for him.

Then one day he saw an advertisement of Muscle-Rub—the doctor's prescription—and in desperation bought a bottle. He used it as directed and in 3 days the pains were relieved and Mr. Jordan was back on the job.

No wonder he advises every rheumatic sufferer to try Muscle-Rub for fast pain relief. Get a bottle today at all good drug stores.

Remember, Muscle-Rub is sold on this money back guarantee. If only half a bottle doesn't bring relief your drug store is authorized to return your money.

Musical Program And Moving Pictures Shown At Presbyterian Church

In the Sunday school room of Mahoningtown Presbyterian church a group of men of the church gathered on Monday evening.

The meeting opened with a period of group singing, to the accompaniment of Rev. Howard A. Redmond, the pastor. Two musical numbers followed, a vocal solo by E. O. Farver and piano solo by George Holliday.

Moving pictures were shown by Arthur Walker, entitled "South of the Border" and "America the Beautiful".

Splendid refreshments were served by the men's committee, G. O. Scheidemantle, Arthur C. Brown and Harold Swisher.

Engagement Told
At Evening Party

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Themos, 408 Seventh street, a large group of friends gathered during the week-end for a party. The occasion was in honor of the 17th birthday anniversary of their niece, Miss Rosemarie Dottle.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Themos announced the engagement of Miss Dottle to Louis Domenick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Domenick of 112 West Cherry street.

Johnny Papupaianni, Frank Dottle and William Rotunno furnished enjoyable music during the evening.

The hostess served a delicious lunch on tables nicely decorated, with a large birthday cake gracing the table. Louis Domenick captured the prize during the games of contest.

A number of nice gifts and a purse of money were received by the honored guest.

BLOOMING NASTURTIUMS

In the 200 block of Newell avenue we noticed on Tuesday afternoon a patch of nasturtiums near the retaining wall of a lawn, with leaves bright and green as if it were midsummer, and nice blooms thereon. There was scarlet sage in bloom in the 100 block of East Cherry street.

Air Raid Siren
Removed Tuesday

On Tuesday afternoon city firemen with the aid of department hook and ladder with block and tackle, dismantled the air raid siren equipment that surmounted the seventh ward fire department building on East Cherry street. The siren was erected in this location during the early days of World War II.

Governor Duff Sees GOP Victor In '48 Election

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was labeled "presidential timber" for the Republican party Tuesday by Gov. James H. Duff but he refused to dismiss the candidacy of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Duff skirted endorsement of a candidate prior to the GOP national convention at Philadelphia next June but told newsmen he "had no objection to a military man for president."

Eisenhower, the governor said, was "one of a number of men who is presidential timber."

Predicts GOP Victory
He predicted the GOP would carry the presidency in 1948 for the first time in 20 years and expressed confidence that the party would select the "right" candidate.

Reminded that political sentiment usually ran against defeated candidates and that Dewey was topped by President Roosevelt in 1944, Duff said he was "not aware of the tradition."

"I will be voting for a candidate and not a tradition," he declared. The governor was mildly critical of the pre-convention campaigns staged by several Republicans.

Should Delay Approval
"In going into the next convention the Republican party will have a large number of men who will, in every way, qualify for the presidency," he said. "This being so, I think we should wait until convention time to decide which of the men best fits the situation at the time," he declared.

Duff, a member of the Bull Moose party led by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1912, dodged endorsement of party policies and said he had no statement to make concerning the type of man to be the GOP standard bearer in 1948.

"I have no formula for a president," he added, "whatever the exigencies of the situation demand should determine the selection."

Governor Duff said candidates should disclose their positions on controversial issues but emphasized, obviously with Dewey in mind, that he had no criticism of those who kept silent.

Jameson Memorial Hospital Needs Your Community Chest Fund Check

During the fiscal year ending May 31, 1947, the Jameson Memorial Hospital received funds from the state amounting to $8,000 and funds from the Community Chest totaling $10,000, a grand total of $18,000.

This money was put to excellent use—it is used to offset the free service which the hospital rendered to the medically indigent of New Castle. During the same period the hospital rendered free service to indigent patients amounting to $22,251. This shows that the Jameson Memorial Hospital gave $4,251 worth of free medical service. This was met out of the current operating income.

These figures have been brought to the attention of the public to indicate that the Jameson hospital is maintained in this community to give service regardless of race, creed, color or of inability to pay.

Help this fine work to continue at one of our most needed institutions. Give to the Community Chest—you will benefit by doing so.

Judge Buffington Is Taken By Death

Former Federal Judge, Well Known Here, Dies in Pittsburgh Tuesday

Judge Joseph Buffington, one of the youngest and probably the oldest Federal judge in the history of the United States, died in Pittsburgh Tuesday following a long illness. He was appointed to the United States Court in 1892 and served for 46 years, retiring in 1938 as the senior judge after 46 years of service. He was born September 5, 1855 in Kittanning.

Judge Buffington was well known in New Castle. In the 20's he was married to Mrs. Margaret Fairfax Clendinning of this city. She preceded him in death some years ago.

Judge Buffington began his legal career in Kittanning. In 1892 President Benjamin Harrison appointed him to the Federal bench. He served in the western district of Pennsylvania until 1906 when President Theodore Roosevelt named him to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals.

Following his retirement in 1938 Judge Buffington made his home in Philadelphia and Cape May. Following a physical breakdown in 1946 he entered the Fairview Sanatorium in Pittsburgh where death occurred. Funeral services will be held Thursday.

Parent-Teachers

Lawrence County Council of the P.T.A. met on Monday evening, in the Green Room of the Y.W.C.A., with Mrs. Horace Allen, president, presiding, opening the meeting with the Lord's prayer. Slippery Rock and Harlansburg units were in charge of the evening program.

Rev. Melville Martin spoke on "How We Got Our Bible" in commemoration of national Bible week. He presented the Slippery Rock P.T.A.

Mrs. McCracken, program chairman for Harlansburg presided over the portion of the program, with Marylyn Forbes playing on the piano. "Under the Double Eagle" The speaker used "Columbus Day" as their subject. Rev. Leichter spoke on "Early Life of Columbus, with Mrs. Kenneth North discussing "Columbus and the Discovery of a New World."

Mrs. Allen directed the short business meeting and told of her trip to the state convention in Pittsburgh. Two of the units received awards for achievement at the convention. Mrs. Allen presented these, an Honor Standard Certificate to Oak Street and a standard certificate to North Mahoning.

The council meets again on November 17 with North Mahoning unit presenting the program.

Acorn squash becomes a main dish, and a very enticing and inexpensive one, too. Just halve the squash, scrape out the seeds and stuff the hollows with a mixture of bread crumbs and cubed pork sausage. Place on a porcelain enameled baking tray and bake in a moderate oven until the squash is tender and the meat is done.

Kearns Sees Little Hope For Ending Of Film Strike

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22.—(INS)—With Rep. Carroll D. Kearns (R) Pa., scheduled to head east tomorrow, little hope was seen today for settlement of the year-old Hollywood jurisdictional film strike.

Kearns was expected to make a formal statement today about his findings in the labor strike.

The congressman took union leaders of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees through a studio tour yesterday in an effort to see how "points of agreement" would fit into specific job rows in the studios.

Both the IATSE and carpenters are battling over jurisdiction of set erecting.

Kearns has proposed that both sides "forget about past arbitration awards and clarifications and work off a clean slate."

Very few thunderstorms occur along the Pacific coastal regions.

School Kiddies In 'Red Feather' Coloring Contest

Grade School Tots Turn In Work Which Will Be Judged And Winner Named

Officials of the Community Chest drive in the city this week have received some 4,000 entries from school children in the big "Red Feather" coloring contest sponsored in the schools.

In the contest the children matched the correct agency with its slogan and then colored in the pictures. These contributions have been given a first phase judging and placed in the window of the Pennsylvania Power company on the public square.

A final judging for the winner will be made soon and that child given a prize. Listed below are the children whose work has been selected to compete in the final naming of the winner. They are listed by name, school and grade.

East Brook Boys Honored

Twenty-three members of the East Brook F.F.A. chapter were honored at a ceremony held at the West Sunbury Wednesday where five of them received the Area or F-A-R-M degree. This degree is higher than any given by the local chapter.

The degree was conferred upon Walter Pearl, Theodore Wallas, Charles Reiber, Harold McConnell and William Sickafuse by agricultural teachers of the Butler-Beaver-Lawrence area. After the initiation ceremony refreshments were served to nearly 200 boys and the Agricultural teachers of the three county area.

Initiate Twelve

The East Brook chapter recently initiated twelve new members into their organization. These included Ben Fennick, Jack Hanna, Glenn Hill, Kay Johns, Ernest McConnell, Keith McConnell, Tom McKee, Howard Schooley, Dick Hanna, Robert Hawthorne, Tom Jones and Bob Smith.

Runs Contest

A hybrid corn experiment has been concluded by Charles Reiber in which ten different varieties were grown and K-24 showed the highest yield. A fertilizer check was also run on corn at the Reiber and Theodore Wallas farms.

Gen. Eisenhower For Universal Training Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower called Tuesday for universal military training as "an insurance policy against extinction by war."

The army chief of staff issued a statement calling for universal military training as a means of meeting this country's responsibility in international relationships. He said:

"The fundamental principle of democracy is equality—equality of burden as well as equality of opportunity. Where the defense of our country is concerned, this principle imposes on each American the duty of service in the manner most effective for the preservation of our way of life.

Logical Peace Move

"Selective service was its wartime application. Its logical peace time application is universal military training, an equitable method of preparing the citizen for his personal defense responsibility so that—should war come again—it shall not find us unready.

"So long as the use of force has not been forever and effectively barred from international relationships, this responsibility must be met soberly and seriously by the United States. Universal military training, as proposed by the president's advisory commission, as an important clause in American democracy's insurance policy against extinction by war."

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 22.—Kiwanians held a "primary" election Monday night in preparation for their general elections Monday, Nov. 3.

A list of candidates for the various offices was submitted by a committee composed of Russell Sewall, George Bleasby, Robert Kelly, Clyde Lamb and Robert Eagleson.

A movie entitled "Alaska's Silver Millions" was shown under the direction of Harold Brennan.

Griff Williams, chairman of the halloween celebration, Oct. 31, reported that council has voted complete cooperation. In addition to topping off street sections for the dance, 80 deputy officers will be assigned to direct traffic.

PLAN BUCKWHEAT RODEO

Plans for publicizing the buckwheat rodeo to be held by the Rotary club Nov. 13 include the sending of emissaries to the various Rotary clubs throughout the area, according to announcement made by Harold Burns, publicity chairman, at Monday night's meeting.

Students Enjoy Journalism Party

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 22.—Eighty members of the journalism classes of Westminster college held an all-journalism party Monday evening in Browne hall lounge.

Entertainment in the form of cartooning, music, and comedy acts was presented by members of the music speech, and journalism departments.

Members of the planning committee were: John Allen Brettell, New Castle, chairman; Lydia Zaharion, Mary Ellen Cipolla, and Alexander MacMorris.

The porcupine's flesh is edible, and was considered a delicacy by the Indians.

Would-Be Suicide Faces Many Charges

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Charges piled up against Claude E. Miller, 33, of Elizabethtown, who kept police at bay more than two hours Sunday by threatening to jump into the Susquehanna river from the Columbia-Wrightsville bridge.

Miller, who drew 30 days for disorderly conduct, was charged by Columbia police with assault in connection with an attack on a 19-year-old girl in Locust Park October 14. The Harrisburg office of the state parole board simultaneously accused him of parole violation.

The accused man was convicted at Harrisburg January 16, 1946, of accepting a bribe and was paroled a year and a day later.

It has been estimated that U.S. production of goods between 1925 and 1929 was at least 20 per cent below the maximum practical limit.

Would-Be-Slayer Fatally Wounded

HAMMOND, W. Va., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Sheriff Hoyt Allen today reported that a 23-year-old steelworker, who had been chasing his estranged wife and mother-in-law with a shotgun, stumbled and fatally wounded himself.

The victim, Eugene Petterson, of Martins Ferry, O., failed to effect a reconciliation with his wife, the sheriff said, and got a gun from his car and began the chase.

It ended when he fell on the front porch of his mother-in-law's home near Hammond.

GIVE ONCE FOR ALL — GIVE ENOUGH FOR ALL

How big is your heart?

Could you turn your back on this girl who is crying her eyes out?

Could you pass her by without wanting to hold her in your arms and try to stop the flood of tears?

Well . . . ?

Thanks to the Red Feather services of the Community Chest, you are there when some frightened little kid needs help.

Those dollars you give bring loving care to children when homes are broken. They help support health and recreational services so that every child gets a chance to grow up healthy and strong.

They help keep families together so that kids can have the security of a happy home life. And that's an important function in these days when there is one divorce for every three marriages!

What else could you buy with your dollars that would mean so much to so many?

So be as big as your heart and give—generously!

Plan Open House At County Home

Citizens Invited To Inspect Home Saturday And Sunday Afternoon 2 To 5, 7 To 8:30

OTHER HAPPENINGS IN COURT HOUSE

County Commissioner Joseph F. Travers announced today that an Open House for citizens would be held at the county home on the Ellwood road Saturday and Sunday afternoons October 24 and 25. The hours will be between 2 and 5 and 7 to 8:30 o'clock.

"Many people have evidenced a desire to see the home, see how it operates and the conditions in which it is," said Mr. Travers. "It seems to me this would be a good time for the winter canning is on the shelves, the other crops are in and the Home is in good shape. I trust many people will come out and see for themselves just what is being done at the county home."

MORE VERDICTS
Two more verdicts have been reported out of the present term of civil court. In the court room number one in the case of Donald Glidden, a minor by his parents against Mooney Brothers, a verdict for the defendant was given.

Glidden sued for damages caused by injuries he received when a truck of the defendant company hit his motorcycle on Route 18 in Neshannock township. It was shown that Glidden was under the age of sixteen when he operated the motorcycle and the jury apparently believed the driver of the defendant's truck was not guilty of improper driving.

In the case of Phillip J. Capece against J. F. Mooney, a verdict of $500 was given the plaintiff. This was a case where the plaintiff rented a home from the defendant in the western part of the county. Sometime during the plaintiff's absence he claimed Mooney had broken into the home and moved out the household belongings and in so doing had caused damage.

In court room number two, the case of the Manufacturer's Distributing Company vs. Elrick H. Scarsz came to trial Tuesday. This is a case in which the plaintiff claims a piece of heating equipment was installed in the defendant's property and the defendant refused to pay. The defense is that the equipment is faulty.

In court room number two, the case of Kate A. McFarland against Paul Butch came to trial. The plaintiff claims she had been using the water of a spring originating on the defendant's land and had been using it for more than 21 years last past. The claim is that the defendant shut off the water and caused the plaintiff to have a well drilled. Damages are asked.

Federal Subsidies To Vets For Homes Is Strongly Urged

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The Housing committee of the State Veterans of Foreign Wars today supported direct federal subsidies to veterans for home construction.

Reporting to state commander Frank C. Hilton, committee chairman George Van Orden, of new hope, recommended that "efforts be made to secure" funds for underwriting home construction for veterans.

"We believe that all strictly emergency housing should be confined to rental units on such terms that the investment will be protected and housing provided as quickly as possible," the committee stated, "but we do not advocate that all rental units be considered emergency housing."

The committee recommended that all federal controls over the building industry be concentrated in a single agency, "to cut red tape and to prevent delays, confusion and conflict of authority".

The committee scored use of building materials for "cheap, unattractive houses on undesirable sites".

Aliquippa Has Shocking Event

ALIQUIPPA, Pa., Oct. 22.—(INS)—An investigation was underway in Aliquippa today to determine what caused three high tension power lines to fall across a main telephone cable in Aliquippa, causing all telephones to ring, and severely burned a man.

L. W. Steiner, Sr., who lives four miles from where the wires fell, said he was burned around the hands, face and back when he picked up his phone to answer it. Several other persons reported they received heavy electric shocks when they answered their telephone.

Florida Senator Guilty Of Charge

BONIFAY, Fla., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Florida State Sen. E. Bert Riddle, convicted on charges of immoral conduct involving a 12-year-old girl, today faced a maximum ten-year prison sentence.

A circuit court jury at Bonifay found Riddle guilty yesterday of "fondling" the child.

He denied any knowledge of the act.

New Lions Club Formed At Volant

Charter Will Be Presented On November 19 To New Club Sponsored By Local Lions

Formation of a new Lions Club for Volant is announced by S. Glenn McCracken, president of the New Castle Lions Club, which is sponsoring the new club. Election of part of the club officers has taken place following organization meetings previously held by the new club, resulting in the election of the Rev. H. A. Silvis, pastor of the Volant Methodist church.

Other officers who have been named by the club so far in their organization plans are: A. B. Weisz, secretary; Harold Shaw, treasurer; and E. M. Hillard, Tail Twister. The other officers will be chosen in the near future.

At present 23 new members have been signed up by the club, and a number more are expected to be added prior to Charter night on November 19.

Organization work has been under the direction of Earl T. Ramsey, chairman of the extension committee. The next meeting will be on Tuesday evening, October 28.

Victory Forecast In Food Campaign By Governor Duff

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22.—(INS)—A victory was forecast by Gov. James H. Duff for Pennsylvania's food conservation campaign headed by Commonwealth Secretary Charles M. Morrison.

"I think we can and should collaborate with the Federal government and so far as I'm concerned we're going to," he told newsmen.

The Federally-sponsored food conservation program will be directed in Pennsylvania by Morrison's committee. Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst was the initial member appointed and other selections were expected this week.

Charges Stubborn Soviets Block Peace

CLEVELAND, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Ezequiel Padilla, former Mexican foreign minister, maintained Tuesday that Russian "stubbornness" is shattering world efforts for peace.

In the season's first McBride series of lectures in Cleveland's Severance hall last night, Padilla charged that the Russians "don't want war, they want time to foment chaos and shatter moral resistance." He added:

"Communism cannot win the other Americas because Latin Americans hate what it stands for. They want liberty and freedom."

Padilla said democracy's counter-attacks to the Russian ideological war were belief in the dignity of man, freedom for the individual and the necessity for economic security.

Strip-Teasers Are Covered Court Says, Compensation That Is

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 22.—(INS)—A New Jersey supreme court ruling decided solemnly today that strip-teasers are covered by the state unemployment compensation act, at least.

The high court found that the girls were not "casual" employees as contended by the Empire theater in Newark.

Theater management had appealed for refund of $1745 paid into the unemployment fund for performers in "disrobing acts".

The proprietors contended that since the girls traveled on a circuit from one theater to another, they were not "covered" by compensation.

SECURING RELEASES
Director of improvements James Gibson is busy these days obtaining release from damages from property owners in Sampson and Grant streets which are to be widened. The streets are part of Route 422. According to council the property owners are donating 10 feet of land in Grant street between the Shenango river and Sampson street and nine feet of land for several hundred feet on the east side of Sampson street.

It is claimed that there are approximately 540 authentic Stradivarius violins in existence, of which 163 are owned in the United States.

Details Given Of Alleged Red Movie Efforts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Adolphe Menjou, veteran film star, and John C. Moffitt, writer and critic, detailed to the House Un-American Activities committee Tuesday examples of alleged Communist infiltration in Hollywood.

Menjou charged that John Cromwell, $250,000-a-year director, boasted that "capitalism in America is through."

He accused Herbert Sorrell, film labor leader, of being a Communist party member under the name "Herbert Stewart," and declared that Sorrell had deliberately prolonged the recent Hollywood strike.

Inject Propaganda
Moffitt testified that John Howard Lawson, a writer who earlier in the proceedings had been called a Communist party member, advised scenarists to inject Communist propaganda into the "most expensive" scenes of their pictures.

The witness said this tactic was designed to make retakes so expensive that the studio heads would allow the scenes to go through as written.

Moffitt cited testimony before a California legislature committee branding Lawson as organizer of the Communist party in Los Angeles. He said he had been urged by Lawson to "try to get a little party line doctrine" into every script he wrote.

Moreover, Moffitt added, Lawson advised young actors to portray the rich as "decadent and snobbish" and the poor as "down-trodden."

Menjou, filmom's sartorial "man of distinction," asserted that the controversial picture "Mission to Moscow"—alleged to have been produced on White House insistence—was "thoroughly dishonest."

"Cleaning Clinic" Drawing Big Crowds of Housewives

To say housewives are interested in discovering shortcuts in their cleaning problems is putting it mildly. If you could see the throngs attending the "Cleaning Clinic" at Strouse-Hirschberg (Notion Dept.) street front, you would believe it. The clinic, which is in the fact that it shows women how to really clean upholstered furniture and rugs safely, quickly and economically. Miss Hattie Chaney, representing the Mystic Foam Corp. of Cleveland, Ohio, is in charge of the "clinic," and because of her special training and wide experience in cleaning problems is proving exceedingly helpful to New Castle housewives. She does amazing things with cool dry foam of Mystic Foam (incidentally it's the only upholstery and rug cleaner guaranteed by Good Housekeeping and Parents Magazine, and approved by the American Medical Association) without soaking through the surface, or wetting the padding.

Mystic Foam is non-explosive, non-inflammable, and quick drying. It can also be used for cleaning fine fabrics and auto upholstery. But there's more to the "Cleaning Clinic" than Mystic Foam—there's a companion product, Mystic Zip, which cleans woodwork, painted walls, venetian blinds without rinsing, wiping or drying. Housewives love it. And there's the sensational new Mystic Dry-Quik for dry cleaning dresses, ties, sweaters, gloves, etc. at air savings, and without leaving any odor. Saturday is the last day of this interesting and helpful "Cleaning Clinic"—be sure to come and see it.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 22.—The gaffer shouted: "Hang another baby!"

And Henry Morgan, who earns a living by being slightly nuts, yelled: "What goes on here?"

The strange terminology of Hollywood sound stages has stopped Mr. Morgan colder than a delicatessen herring.

The radio comedian, making his movie debut in "So This is New York," declared today:

Somebody's Goofy
"Either I'm goofy or Hollywood is. Everything around this joint sounds like mayhem, murder or preoccupation with dimes."

"I walk on the set for my first experience as a film actor. And what happens? Some bruiser hollers orders to hang a baby. That was a shock until I learned it merely means to 'place a spotlight above the set!'"

At precisely that moment another foghorn voice boomed: "Put a silk on that broad!"

And Henry Morgan said: "That could only mean draping a beautiful babe's gams. But no! I find it's an instruction to cut down the light on one of the big arcs by covering it with a cloth slide."

Gruesome Thought
Another standard movie-set phrase, "Twist Junior's Neck," sounded like a good idea to Henry. Then he discovered it did not mean punishment for some obstreperous brat, but only a change of angle on a small spotlight.

Another gaffer, or lighting expert, whooped:
"That baby's too hot on Morgan's head!"

Morgan whispered: "I still don't know what that means and I'm afraid to ask."

Distilled Spirits Production Jumps
Year Ending June 30, 1947 Sees More Than Three Per Cent Rise Over Last Year

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The Bureau of Internal Revenue reported Tuesday that over-all production of distilled spirits during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947, was more than three percent above the year-ago level.

Production jumped 10,091,063 gallons above the output of 315,157,700 gallons during fiscal 1946.

Largest increase in distilled spirit production came in whiskey, which increased by more than twenty and one half million gallons. Brandy also increased nearly 13 and one half million gallons but was offset by drops in rum, gin and other spirits.

The production of rectified or blended spirits and wines dropped by 2,318,535 gallons from a 1946 figure of 150,878,888 as a rise in whiskey production was offset by larger drops in gin, brandy, cordials and liqueurs.

Alcohol Drops
Meanwhile, the production of undenatured ethyl alcohol at industrial plants fell more than eighty and one half million gallons from an output of 329,386,962 gallons in fiscal 1946.

Production of denatured alcohol also fell from 212,802,110 gallons to 183,744,086.

The bureau said that production of still wines totaled 169,627,429 gallons—an increase of nearly 50 million gallons.

Sparkling wine production also rose 7,978,655 gallons from an output of 40,569,338 in fiscal 1946, but Vermont fell 808,973 gallons.

HIGHWAY DEATHS INCREASE
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 22.—Highway deaths this year in West Virginia had reached a total of 293 today, the State Police Accident Prevention Bureau reported. Five deaths from accidents over the weekend pushed the total to one more than for the same period in 1946.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive
Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduce the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Poultry Raisers Offer New Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The nation's poultry producers offered a new plan Tuesday for saving about 30 million bushels of grain by April 1, through elimination of the food conservation program's poultryless Thursdays.

The poultrymen presented their new feed-conservation program in a letter to Citizens' Food Committee Chairman Charles Luckman, who turned down their original proposal to end poultryless days.

Poultry association officials promised that four million bushels of grain could be saved between now and April 1, by reducing production of broiler chickens to 75 percent of the 1946 output.

Promote Reductions
They also pledged a 20-million bird reduction in present laying flocks and said that this would save an additional six million bushels.

The industry promised a further saving of 10 million bushels through elimination of the use of good grade wheat in feeding and another 10 million bushels by slaughtering 100 million birds from present poultry flocks.

Luckman will meet this afternoon with the poultrymen to discuss their new proposal and decide whether poultryless days should continue.

GUIDED MISSILE DEFENSE WEAPON
PORTLAND Ore., Oct. 22.—(INS)—A guided missile meant to protect cities from air attack was being developed today by the Boeing Aircraft company.

W. M. Allen, president of the Seattle company, disclosed in Portland that the defensive missile is controlled from the ground and "is something new". He said he could not give further details because of military secrecy.

Allen warned that the missile still is in the experimental stage and it cannot be used "for a long time yet".

Social Security Act Is Explained

HALLOWEEN PARTY SET FOR NEXT WEEK

New Castle Lions Club members heard an interesting talk on the workings of the Social Security Act, when they were addressed by Myron Milbourn, manager of the district office here of the Social Security Administration, Bureau of Old Age and Survivors Insurance, at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton Tuesday noon.

Mr. Milbourn stated that payments in the local district, which covers Lawrence, Mercer, and Butler counties, now amounts to around two millions of dollars a year, and that 7,000 persons are drawing compensation under the provisions of the act.

He showed an interesting picture, taken in the national offices of the administration at Washington, showing how the department is setup and the way records are kept, etc.

Plans For Party

Plans were announced for the halloween party on next Tuesday evening, October 28, at Lakewood, starting at nine o'clock. Harvey B. Bush is general chairman.

One new member, Quentin R. Craft, local Mercury and Lincoln dealer, was admitted to the club, and there were three guests: C. B. Farver, of this city; H. A. Welke, of St. Louis, Mo., and the Rt. Rev. Ralph E. Hovenkamp new rector of Trinity church.

Plans were announced for the coming Regional Meeting of Lions at Indiana, Pa., November 17, to which the ladies are invited as well as the members of the different clubs in the area.

President S. Glenn McCracken announced the appointment of a committee consisting of Carbis Walker, Joseph B. Leyde, Harry Helmick, Frank Clobus, and Sam Rashid, to stimulate interest in attendance at the event.

Horse Collar Is Given To Truman

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—President Truman was presented a horse collar Tuesday which he says he is going to put on someone if he can find the proper person.

The miniature piece of harness was given to the president by Ray H. "Horse Collar" Brannaman, who heads the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Brannaman, who is a westerner from Denver, Colo., appeared at the White House wearing a 10-gallon western hat, and carrying a pocketful of miniature leather horsecollars.

He came to discuss more serious business, including the presentation of the VFW's national program for veterans. He was accompanied by Omar Tetcham, former national commander.

But the conversation got into a light vein when Brannaman showed the president a stickpin in the shape of a horse collar that he wears and gave the president a small leather horse collar.

The president laughingly said that he was going to look around and find someone to wear it.

Opposition To New Proposal For Britain

LONDON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—King George announced Tuesday that the labor government intends to press for legislation limiting the veto power of the House of Lords, and the proposal was promptly denounced as a "counsel of madness."

Following the king's announcement before the new session of parliament, Lord Salisbury—leading conservative opposition debate on the speech—asserted the proposal results from "a shabby, shoddy political deal."

The peer declared that younger and more irresponsible members of Prime Minister Attlee's cabinet are demanding further restrictions on the power of the lords as "a pound of flesh" for their agreement to postpone nationalization of the iron and steel industries.

U. S. To Represent Brazil At Moscow

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The State Department announced today that the United States has agreed to represent Brazilian interests in the Soviet Union following the break in relations between Rio de Janeiro and Moscow.

State Department spokesman Lincoln White announced this agreement immediately following receipt of word from Rio that Brabill had severed her diplomatic relations as a result of Moscow press attacks on President Dutra.

White said that the U. S. instructed the American Embassy in Moscow that this government has agreed to accept the responsibility.

Liquor Control Board Policies Given Approval

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The State Liquor Control Board's purchasing policies were endorsed Tuesday by Gov. James H. Duff.

Reports that large supplies of unpopular brands of whiskies were being withheld by the LCB prompted the governor to state emphatically that he was "not concerned about any unwieldy situation."

He pointed out that any merchandising business the size of Pennsylvania's $250,000,000 a year monopoly would be faced with a similar problem.

"There was a time," Duff explained, "when you bought cats and dogs when you couldn't buy anything else."

The governor said he would request Board Chairman Frederick T. Gelder to issue an explanation of the problem to the public.

Legion Auxiliary Making Plans For Poppy Day Sale

Annual Distribution Of World War Memorial Emblem To Take Place Next Month

America's battle dead will be honored here on Saturday, Nov. 8, by the customary wearing of blood-red poppies, the memorial flower of the English-speaking world since the first World War, it was announced by Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, poppy chairman of unit 343, American Legion Auxiliary.

Poppies will be distributed on the streets here on the above date by representatives of the local American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Miller announces. These have been made by Pennsylvania veterans in veterans' hospitals located within the state exclusively for the American Legion Auxiliary.

Poppies were first worn in America in New York City on November 10, 1918, the day before the armistice. They were adopted as the official memorial flower of the American Legion in 1920, and one of the first acts of the American Legion Auxiliary when it was organized in 1921 was to name the poppy as its memorial flower. The custom of wearing poppies on memorial occasions was inspired by the poem, "Flanders Fields."

Mountville Church Plans Celebration

One Hundred Fortieth Anniversary Of Rural Church Will Be Commemorated During Week

Commemorating 140 years of faithful service to the community, the Mountville U. P. church congregation will begin a celebration on Wednesday evening, which will continue until Sunday, October 26, it is announced by the pastor Rev. J. C. Fulton.

Gospel services are planned for each evening, at 8 o'clock with the exception of Saturday when the group will join in the Youth for Christ service in the Portersville U. P. church.

Rev. W. E. Minter, D. D. of Ellwood City will speak on Wednesday evening, while Rev. John Heslip, D. D., of Grove City will speak at the other services of the anniversary period. Sunday, October 26 has been designated at homecoming day, with Bible school convening at 10 a. m. and morning worship at 11 a. m., with commemoration of the Lord's supper, reception of new members and ordination of Baptism to take place.

During the afternoon service at 2:30 o'clock, homecoming worship will be conducted to be followed at 8 p. m. by the evening service, when a young peoples rally will close the anniversary. Those coming from a distance may bring their basket lunches and eat in the church basement. Especially for this celebration, the interior of the church has been redecorated.

World Bank Has Cash Available For New Loans

World Bank Discloses Being In Red For Last Three Months Of Business

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The World Bank disclosed Tuesday that it closed the last three months of business $877,685 in the red and now has approximately 480 million dollars available for new loans.

In its quarterly financial statement, the bank said it had a total income of two million, 538 thousand, 741 dollars, while it spent three million, 416 thousand, 426 dollars. One million 162 thousand 267 dollars of that amount represented the cost of issuing bonds.

The statement said that disbursements of loans to France, the Netherlands and Denmark to date have totalled 232 million dollars. The three countries have received approval for a total of 497 million dollars in credits.

American Dollars
Thus far all loans have been made in American dollars. Luxembourg, however, has asked that a 12-million dollar credit which has been approved by the bank, be paid off in currencies other than dollars.

The Luxembourg loan will not become effective until it has ratified the agreement with the bank. Included in the 480 million dollars available for new loans are 250 millions raised through the issue of the bank's bonds in July.

The statement said that total stock subscriptions increased to eight billion, 225 million, 100 thousand dollars during the three months as a result of Australia's subscription of 2,000 shares and an increase of six shares in the capital stock to Paraguay.

Arch Hypocrisy Charged To Soviet

FLUSHING MEADOWS, N. Y., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Australia's Herbert V. Evatt blasted the Soviet Union with charges of "arch hypocrisy" in the United Nations Tuesday for assailing Anglo-American aid to Greece.

The outspoken Australian called on the general assembly to give its approval to a Balkan border "watch dog" commission and refuted Andrei Vishinsky's repeated attacks on Britain and the United States.

Evatt cited the 1946 pact between the Soviet Union and Poland, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia for supplying the three satellites with arms and military advisors and said each government was entitled to carry out such transactions at its own discretion.

Boy Flies From Holland To Get Rare Operation

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(INS)—A blond sixteen-month-old boy from Holland reached Philadelphia Tuesday after flying the Atlantic alone for removal of paint flakes in his windpipe and lungs.

Mauritis H. Van Eck, cared for by the stewardess on a K.L.M. Royal Dutch plane, arrived at La Guardia Field yesterday.

He was met by Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Laqueur, New York, who placed him on a United Airlines plane bound for Philadelphia.

He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Van Eck, of Amsterdam. Several days ago it was discovered that he swallowed paint which had become blistered on the wall of his room.

An X-ray examination showed that much of the paint had been inhaled instead of swallowed. The possibility of lead poisoning developed.

The Dr. Chevalier Jackson Clinic at Temple University will perform the operation.

To Have Exam For Rural Carrier

Announcement is made by C. R. Aiken, postmaster at Wampum, that an examination will be conducted in Ellwood City in the near future to fill the position of rural carrier at Wampum.

Applications for the position will be received until November 13, and those making application will be notified of the date of examination. Application blanks can be secured from Postmaster Aiken.

Pan-American Congress Urged

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Rep. Thomas (R) N. J., declared Tuesday that Brazil's diplomatic break with Russia "is all the more reason" a Pan-American congress should be called to combat communism in the western hemisphere.

The chairman of the house un-American activities committee pointed out that he advocated such a meeting several weeks ago. He said:

"Since then, I have heard from the representatives of three nations, all indicating they thought it is a very good idea and that we should go ahead."

Thomas plans to confer on his proposal with Speaker Martin (R) Mass., and House Majority Leader Halleck (R) Ind., when they return to Washington.

State Bakers To Aid Food Saving

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Directors of the Pennsylvania Bakers Association, representing nearly ten per cent of the nation's baking industry, on Tuesday announced approval of the government's 12-point wheat saving program.

The directors, in session in Pittsburgh, said they had wired Charles Luckman, chairman of the citizens food committee, their approval. They advised him the association would appeal to all bakers in the state to comply.

They said, however, it would not be feasible to turn out smaller size loaves of bread due to a shortage of pans and proper sized wrapping material, but compliance with other phases would take little time.

About half the total consumption of liquefied gas in the United States goes into domestic uses. Of the rest, nearly a quarter of the total is used in the manufacture of chemicals.

Renegotiation Of War Contracts Over $100,000 Is Urged

Recommendation Made For Action For Excessive Profits In Contracts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The nation's top-ranking renegotiation officer recommended that all war contracts above $100,000 should be renegotiated for excessive profits and that there should be "no exemptions" to anyone.

The double-barreled recommendation was given the Senate War Investigating Committee by John R. Paul, chief of the War Contract Price Adjustment Board.

He was the first witness called as the committee launched a new series of public hearings which touched off a Senatorial blow-up similar to last summer's Howard Hughes case.

Paul told the committee that the government would have had 10 to 15 percent more in recovered funds from war contract concerns if the floor on renegotiation had been kept at $100,000 instead of raised to $500,000.

Sum Recovered
Paul said there was a definite "tendency" on the part of war-time companies to "stop at $500,000 and organize additional companies" in order to escape renegotiation.

The witness reported that net savings through renegotiation ranged between three and four billion dollars while the total sum recovered was 10 billion, 434 million, 637 thousand dollars. Of this amount, he said, about six to seven billion dollars would have been recovered anyhow through taxes.

Paul went on record against any such exemptions as that which permitted mines, oil or gas wells, and unprocessed timber to escape renegotiation. He said, however, that the board had not discovered any attempts by industry to shift their costs from the raw material operations to the processing end of their businesses in order to hold down the mount they might have to turn back to the government.

Governor Will Not Become Entangled In Local Elections

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff indicated he would not become entangled in local election battles but said he may make several speeches on behalf of the Republican party at large.

"I'm enormously anxious to have the Republican party win locally wherever it can because we're going into an important contest next year," he declared. "Local victories build up to an overall situation."

The governor, scheduled to keynote the Dauphin county GOP rally Thursday night, indicated he would make several other speeches throughout the state on behalf of the GOP and to endorse the candidacy of Superior Court Judge John S. Fine.

Some Employees In Super-Secrecy Agency Are Out

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Rear Adm. R. H. Hillenkoetter, director of the central intelligence group, said that "a number" of employees in the super-secret agency have been dismissed for security reasons.

Hillenkoetter refused to reveal the exact number, although he said a published estimate of 12 was incorrect. He declared that the number was more likely to be considered "a few than a lot."

The admiral said that all the employees dismissed were given careful hearings and the results of the hearings before the G. I. C.'s review board had been personally checked.

Heroic Flier Dies To Keep Plane From Striking Maine Town

SEARSPORT, Me., Oct. 22.—

(INS) — Army officials disclosed today that Maj. Kenneth G. Smith, 33, of Boise, Idaho, was the heroic pilot who maneuvered his crippled P-47 Thunderbolt plane to avoid striking homes in the center of SearSPORT.

Smith died when his plane crashed in the shallow bed of mill stream.

Major Smith, who recently commanded the 37th fighter squadron at Dow Field, Bangor, had flown in 126 combat missions in Europe during the war. He was credited with bringing down six German planes.

He was leading a group of four planes on a routine flight when his Thunderbolt went into a flat spin at 10,000 feet altitude.

He crawled out on the wing and was ready to make a parachute jump, but was too late. The plane was too close to earth.

Army investigating officials were told that Major Smith had maneuvered his plane to maneuver it away from the center of the town and avert a worse tragedy.

Four men suffered burns dragging the pilot's body from the flaming plane.

Victim Of Texas City Blast In Hospital Here

Through efforts of the National Red Cross and the New Castle Hospital, Leroy Nicholson, 38, of New Galilee, injured in the Texas City, Texas explosion last spring, has been returned nearer to his home, and is at present receiving the best medical treatment in the local hospital.

Accompanied by two special Red Cross nurses, Mr. Nicholson was transferred from the John Sealy hospital, Galveston, Texas, where he had been a patient for approximately four months. He arrived here by train during the latter part of August, the New Castle and hospital authorities report that since that time, great improvement has been noticed in the progress of his condition.

Was Employed in Texas City

Mr. Nicholson, a laborer in a Texas City warehouse, when the blast occurred, was the sole survivor in the warehouse, the other 17 employees being killed instantly.

The holocaust, which devastated the harbor and parts of the city, killed an unnamed hundreds of persons, one local seventh ward resident, Rocco Pelosi, being listed among the victims.

Having been employed in Texas City, for a short time, Mr. Nicholson was making arrangements to have his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Nicholson, and their four children move to Texas. At the time of the unfortunate tragedy, the Nicholsons resided in New Galilee.

Mr. Nicholson will be confined to a hospital for an indefinite period of time. And with this knowledge, the National Red Cross made arrangements to have him removed to a hospital nearer to his home, and the New Castle Hospital, cooperated in making these final arrangements.

Specially Constructed Bed

In order to facilitate his care, the Red Cross purchased a specially constructed bed for him, which will eliminate a great deal of unnecessary lifting and moving about. Also the fact that he is nearer to his home, has proven helpful and a great assistance for him, physically and mentally. Since it is the ruling the hospital to forbid children to visit patients, special arrangements were made for Mr. Nicholson to see his children on various occasions.

It is hoped that within a short period of time, some type of artificial will be provided for Mr. Nicholson, which will occupy this time, and possibly in some manner assist him in working a means towards his livelihood.

Princess At Opening Of Parliament

(By International News Service)

A royal princess who is destined one day to rule the world's greatest empire made her first official appearance before the lawmakers of her country today and heard an important pronouncement regarding the future of the nation's peace.

Princess Elizabeth, much in the news because of her forthcoming wedding, attended the opening session of the new British parliament. She accompanied her mother and father, King George VI, who made the historic pronouncement.

The king told the legislators that Britain's labor government has decided to curb the powers of the ancient House of Lords.

HOE STILL BEST WEED ERADICATOR IN GARDEN

After some first-hand experiences during the 1947 growing season, home gardeners are agreed that while chemical weed killers have their place, they will do well to stick to the hoe for killing weeds in the vegetable garden.

The weed killer 2-4-D can be used effectively to rid lawns of dandelions, plantain, and other broad-leaved weeds, but may destroy some of the crops if used in the garden. Tomatoes, beans, peas, and other vegetables usually grown in the home garden are highly sensitive to 2-4-D, and like the weeds, will be destroyed if some of the chemical spray intended for the weeds drifts on them.

The weed killer is much more powerful and longer lasting in effect than is generally realized. Even a small residue of 2-4-D in spraying equipment can injure vegetable plants. For this reason the same equipment for spraying lawn and garden should not be used. Separate equipment should be used for each work.

Africa has a virtual monopoly on diamond production.

HOE STILL BEST WEED ERADICATOR IN GARDEN

After some first-hand experiences during the 1947 growing season, home gardeners are agreed that while chemical weed killers have their place, they will do well to stick to the hoe for killing weeds in the vegetable garden.

The weed killer 2-4-D can be used effectively to rid lawns of dandelions, plantain, and other broad-leaved weeds, but may destroy some of the crops if used in the garden. Tomatoes, beans, peas, and other vegetables usually grown in the home garden are highly sensitive to 2-4-D, and like the weeds, will be destroyed if some of the chemical spray intended for the weeds drifts on them.

The weed killer is much more powerful and longer lasting in effect than is generally realized. Even a small residue of 2-4-D in spraying equipment can injure vegetable plants. For this reason the same equipment for spraying lawn and garden should not be used. Separate equipment should be used for each work.

Africa has a virtual monopoly on diamond production.

McKeesport, a city with a population of 55,355, operates the largest single municipal parking lot of those places replying to the inquiry. There are spaces for 550 automobiles. Waynesboro, a borough with 10,231 population, operates two lots with a total capacity of 650 vehicles. The borough reports no need for additional parking facilities.

The survey revealed that in addition to McKeesport and Waynesboro, Erie, Wilkesboro, Oil City, Coatesville, Bristol, Lock Haven, Bloomsburg, Jeanette, Phoenixville, St. Marys, Monongahela, Jersey Shore, Quakertown, Chambersburg, Northampton, Bethlehem, Meadville, Conneville, Canonsburg, and Milton, also operate parking lots.

STATE COLLEGE, Oct. 22.—Very few Pennsylvania municipalities own or operate off-street parking lots, a survey by the Institute of local government at the Pennsylvania State College reveals.

Of 211 municipalities ranging between 5000 and 125,000 in population that answered a questionnaire, only 22 said they provide off-street parking facilities for a public use. Thirty-seven municipalities reported that they are planning municipal off-street lots as a part of

County Schools Swing Into Action Again Thursday

Class "B" Schools Launch Week's Card

Union At Hickory, Mercer At Bessemer, Shenango At Freedom Thursday; Erie East Invades New Castle Friday Evening; Kittanning At Ellwood.

Lawrence county scholastic football action will resume again Thursday night with all three of the class "B" schools playing under the lights.

Union high's "Scotties" will journey to Hickory, Shenango is due at Freedom and Bessemer is the only home team, awaiting the invasion of the Mercer high "Mustangs".

Friday night the class AA teams of the county will be busy once more. New Castle's Red Hurricane draws Erie East in a non-conference tussle while Ellwood will entertain Kittanning in the Wolverines' seventh straight AA pairing.

Gunning For Wins
Union and Shenango, following their gruelling 0-0 struggle last Friday night, are hoping to hit the touchdown parade again. Chuck James' Scotties appear to have drawn the toughest assignment against the rugged Hickory "Hornets", who have lost but one contest in six starts. The Freedom "Oilers" will also prove a tough nut to crack for the punchless Wildcats.

Bessemer is favored over the Mercer high eleven, despite their touchdown drought against Darlington and Zelienople.

Canes Back In Groove
Coach Phil Bridenbaugh's big Red Hurricane team got back into the victory parade last Friday afternoon against the Mt. Lebanon Blue Devils and figure to repel and in-out-er Erie East team at Taggart field Friday. This game will nigh-light the local grid picture this week-end.

Last year the Canes walked off the field with a 20-0 triumph and figure to roll against the up-state eleven.

Ellwood should have little trouble with Kittanning, one of the weak sisters of the AA loop. The Butler countians have dropped six games and tied one—against Butler in their season opener.

The Wolverines, with successive wins over Clairton and Aliquippa, appear to have too many guns for the visitors.

Eagles May Lose Their Ace Guard

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The Philadelphia Eagles learned with dismay today that their veteran guard, Duke Marone, may be out the rest of the season with an ankle injury.

Marone, a graduate of Steelton, Pa., high school, was hurt in last Sunday's game at Pittsburgh. He was a valuable reserve with four years experience in the National Pro Football league.

The Eagles play an important game with the Los Angeles Rams next Sunday at Shibe park.

MORANEY DEFEATS MARTIN AT CAMDEN

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Jess Moroney, 156, Harrisburg, Pa., middleweight, won a hard but unexciting 10-round decision over Danny Martin, 160, of Newark at the Camden Armory last night.

Fighting with contrasting styles, both fighters were warned by Referee Joe Mangold to step up the pace in the third round. Mangold gave six rounds to Moroney, two to Martin and two were even.

Brown Lee, 133, of Harrisburg, outpointed Charles Williams, 135, Philadelphia, subbing for Eddie Thomas, in the six-round semi-final.

Titans Prepare To Battle Bisons

Final Home Game On Westminster Grid Calendar Saturday With Bethany

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 22.—Westminster College's grid team resumed practice Tuesday in preparation for the final home game of the year scheduled for Saturday with Bethany.

Coach Mel Hetzler gave his boys a holiday Monday. He was pleased by the way his injury-riddled squad battled Allegheny last Saturday. He felt that a break here or there would have swung the balance to the Titans.

Eight Regulars Hurt
Hetzler has eight regulars on the injured list but he is hopeful that a number of the boys will be ready for Saturday. However, the team physician has notified him that Wally Schumm, veteran guard, who has a leg injury, is through for the year.

Bethany is reputed to have one of its best teams in years even though four games in a row have been dropped. This is the same number dropped by the Titans.

Saturday's contest will be the 17th between the schools. Bethany has the edge with nine victories to six for Westminster. One resulted in a tie.

Following Saturday's game, the Titans have tilts with Geneva, Waynesburg and Grove City, all away.

Thornton May Surprise Billy

Matchmaker Leach Wouldn't Be Surprised If Ellwood City Slugger Is Loser

When 16 amateur fighters battle in eight bouts next Wednesday night in The Arena fans will be seeing some newcomers, and according to Tommy Leach, of the Jefferson A. C., he wouldn't be surprised to see Henry Thornton of Pittsburgh defeat Billy Pozza, heavyweight champion of Lawrence county. Thornton began his career in the army and has had a steady run of success since being discharged, the matchmaker reports.

Eddie Fajetta, Steubenville, who boxes Rizeri Ronzi, Youngstown, is also reputedly a good heavyweight, and is another newcomer, as are Chuck Turner, 147, Sharley Lewis, 122, Mike Gisoni, 123, and Mac Hughes, 135.

Turner is slated to box tough Danny Benedetto, Youngstown, who lost a close decision to Pat McGinley, October 12. Lewis is scheduled to box a return bout with Tommy DeSantis, Youngstown, who has won two fights here. They boxed a great fight at Titusville recently. Gisoni beat Herb Jackson, Akron, at Ellwood City, October 1. The night Pozza stopped Bob Everett in the second round. Mac Hughes has yet to box here.

In all there will be eight bouts under AAU sanction.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—We've got a pretty mess in eastern college football circles now and I shall attempt to tell you about it so that the rest of the country can see what a state the so-called grand college game can reach.

Rev. Robert I. Gannon, president of Fordham university, took a full windup in a speech and delivered certain charges which resulted in the New York Giants threatening to kick Fordham out of the Polo ground unless it gets an apology.

What Father Gannon said about Horace Stoneham and the owners of the New York Giants was that they have collected a million and a half dollars in rentals for the Polo grounds.

Father Gannon also said that sports writers are "tyrants of tyrants" and seemingly laboring under the belief that college football is arranged for the income of sports writers.

I don't know where he ever got the notion that sports writers make anything out of football. If all college football were to be cancelled tomorrow, it wouldn't make the slightest difference to the sports writers.

In fact, most of them would welcome such a deal because of the hypocrisy involved in football as it is today.

What Father Gannon apparently doesn't know is that Fordham has been gathering talent to make the greatest freshman team in the east—one that beats the varsity every day in scrimmages by 60 to 0 and one that will be a power in the east next year.

That's the kind of team Fordham has at a time when the president of the school says all they want to do is coast along casually. Somebody is kidding Father Gannon.

Fordham will have no place to go for its remaining football games this season, if it stays kicked out of the Polo grounds, and this eleven—which really doesn't amount to much—probably will wind up playing on the curbstone.

The only alternative is an apology from Father Gannon to the Giants for his having called them extortioners.

At the university today, a spokesman expressed regret that Father Gannon's extemporaneous remarks, made at a private gathering, had reached the public, having been made "in a humorous tone".

We sports writers are not going to ask for an apology for his having called us tyrants.

Fordham has been lucky through the years. The heights of the Rams' so-called glory came during the tenure of Jim Crowley as head coach, and those were the dullest teams in football history.

Crowley played it safe—if you can't win don't let the other team win, and he operated on this basis at a time when Fordham was running the Pennsylvania coal mines short of help.

The present head of the Chicago Rockets in the All-America conference apparently asked a man only two things:

1—How big are you?
2—Can you go 60 minutes?

The records will prove where Fordham talent has been gathered from.

TEMPLE MENTOR TO REST FLEET
HALFBACK STAR

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Coach Ray Morrison of Temple university revealed today that Phil Slosburg, ace ball carrier, will get plenty of rest in Saturday's game with Bucknell at Lewisburg.

Morrison said Slosburg will be used almost exclusively on offense and that reserve Quarterback Bob Gorton will go into action when the Owls give up the ball.

High Harriers Win Seventh In Row At Beaver

Defeat Beaver High For Second Time This Year, Capture First Five Places

Rolling merrily along to the state championship in cross country circles, the New Castle High rambling harriers yesterday rang up their seventh straight win, and are undefeated. Beaver High being the victims for the second time this year. It was 15 to 40.

Coach Austin Cowmeadow has done a commendable job of bringing the cross country team through seven straight successful meets and is pointing for the WPIAL and state titles.

First Five Places
Rytell of Ambridge set a new course record at Beaver in 1946 of 12:42, but New Castle had five minutes better than that yesterday. Only five seconds separated the No. 1 and No. 5 for New Castle, which is really "bunching them".

The New Castle team appeared in better shape for the race yesterday than for any previous meet this year. New Castle meets Ambridge here Thursday.

How they finished:
1. Sampson, New Castle—12:28
2. Capps, New Castle—12:31
3. Doone, New Castle—12:32
4. Kungensmith, New Castle—12:34
5. Borgdon, New Castle—12:35

UMPS TO HONOR HILL THURSDAY

Umpires Will Tender Farewell Dinner To President For Past 18 Years

Those big burly umpires who call "them as they see them" and refuse to change their decisions, are going to show their retiring president, Leo W. Hill, just how big their hearts really are "Thursday evening, at a 'farewell banquet' at 8 o'clock at a New Wilmington road cafe.

Hill for the past 18 years has served the Lawrence County Umpires Association as their leader and was the founder of the association of "Balls and Strikes Men". He has done a wonderful job and is deserving of all the praise being heaped on him.

In Failing Health
In failing health now, Hill will leave the latter part of the week to make his home in Arizona. He was in Phoenix for almost a year but decided to return here last summer. His health has not improved in this climate, and he is ordered to return to the hot dry west.

Reservations for the dinner are being taken by Tom Conti and "Dad" Hartman until tonight. No doubt there will be a large turnout for the dinner and to honor Hill for his fine work throughout the years. Hill has done much to further baseball in New Castle.

All members of the umpires association will meet at the "Y" at 7 o'clock Thursday evening to make the trip to the banquet site.

May Stage Bout For Flyweight Crown In Garden

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(INS)—The next title bout for the much-disputed flyweight championship of the world may be held in the United States if present promotional plans are carried out.

Sol Strauss, acting promoter for the 20th Century Sporting Club is trying to arrange a title bout at Madison Square Garden in late March or early April.

Strauss has telegraphed Rinty Monaghan, disputed Irish champion, and Dado Marino of Honolulu, the man Monaghan defeated, concerning a return match.

Monday, Monaghan decided Marino, but the fans booed the triumph and British boxing experts declared the ruling unjust.

Monaghan's "title" is not sanctioned by the British Boxing Board, because British Flyweight King Jackie Paterson has filed an injunction concerning his title being taken from him without his defending it.

The board will rule on Paterson's plea shortly.

Skiff To Pilot Newark In 1948

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Bill Skiff will skipper the Newark Bears of the International league next season and try to improve on their 1947 fifth place finish. That fifth slot was the first time in 14 years the Bears had not finished in the first division.

Skiff, who has been in the Yankee organization for over two decades, succeeded George Selkirk as Newark pilot last June.

He has had previous managerial experience with Durham, Birmingham, Norfolk and Seattle.

IRISH CAGERS DRILL
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 22.—(INS)—Notre Dame's basketball squad enjoyed its second workout today, with six lettermen pacing the drill.

The lettermen all were members of last year's team, which won 20 and lost 4 games.

Oakland Sportsmen To Meet Tonight

Members of the Oakland Sportsmen club will hold a special meeting tonight at the K. Pulaski Hall at 8 o'clock, it was announced by Joseph M. Waskin, president.

The meeting has been called by the surveying committee and will have some important matters to discuss with the club members on the recently acquired new property for a clubhouse and range.

Bears-Trojans Arrange Meeting

Strong Semi-Pro Elevens Will Clash At Stadium Nov. 14 In Band Fund Game

High school football will close here on November 7 with the New Castle-Warren game, but the season gets a week's longer lease on life with a semi-pro game that is announced today.

The Wabash Bears of New Castle will meet the Ellwood City Sportsman Club's Trojans at Taggart Field Friday night, November 14, at 8 o'clock. Plans for the game were announced today. The net proceeds of the game will go to the fund being raised to send the New Castle Senior High school band to Bethlehem on Thanksgiving Day.

Both Fast Teams
Both the Bears and the Trojans have fast teams, and on each roster are found former high school and college stars. In the Bears' lineup are names that not so long ago were found on the New Castle senior high school roster.

On the Trojans' team are many of the famous 1944 Ellwood City high school squad, the team that was the WPIAL runner-up of that year. The game has been urged by football fans of both cities for weeks and the arrangements are now complete, contracts are signed, and plans for the ticket sale under way.

The idea of a benefit game was originated by the Bears. Some weeks ago Manager William Domeneck and Coach Blackie Adamo met with the committee raising the money for the band and said they wanted to have a part in the fund raising. A benefit game was suggested and the Trojans of Ellwood City were considered a logical opponent. The management of the Trojans agreed and the game was arranged.

Tickets will be priced at $1 for reserve seats in Section 3, 4 and $5. The balance of the seats will be 75 cents, with a 35-cent admission for students. These prices include tax.

Tickets will be placed at various places in New Castle and Ellwood City within the next few days.

Fordham To Make Reply To Giants On Rental Blast

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Fordham university officials intimated today that a reply would be made within 48 hours to the New York (baseball) Giants' demand for a retraction of statements attributed Sunday to the Rev. Robert I. Gannon, university president.

He was quoted as calling them "extortionists" in their rental rates for football at the Polo grounds, while delivering a communion breakfast address on football de-emphasis at Newark, N. J. The educator has not been available since for comment.

Meanwhile, the Polo grounds management was hinting early today that, unless their reported demand for a retraction and apology was satisfied promptly, they would request Fordham to play its remaining 1947 games elsewhere.

Panther Coach Claims Illinois-Michigan Even

By JIMMY JORDAN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22.—Mike Milligan, the man who may know best, says it should be one great ball game when Michigan and Illinois get together in Champaign a week from next Saturday.

Milligan had a real first hand look at both of them, and while memories of those games are more than somewhat on the unpleasant side, they are poignant memories.

Illinois beat Milligan's Pitt Panthers, 14-0 with two quick touchdowns in the last period, after toying with the Pittsburghs more than a little bit during most of the game. Then Michigan's juggernaut bowled over those same Panthers, 69-0, for the Pitts' most lopsided loss in the history of football at Skyscraper U.

"That should be a great game," Milligan said, as he reflectively relived the wounds of his two clashes with those teams.

"I'd like to see it myself. But I have business elsewhere that day." He might have added he "unfortunately" had business elsewhere but philosophically didn't. That's the same day his winless Panther kittens have a date in Minneapolis with Bernie Bierman's Minnesotans.

Hesitates On Choice
Milligan sagely hesitated to pick a favorite in the game, but may have given a hint when he said:

"Illinois will give them a good game."

In comparing the Illini and Wolverine lines, he remarked:

"They're just about even. I'd say Michigan's is faster, but it seems that Illinois line hits you harder."

"Michigan's line is rangier and moves more quickly on the charge. The Illini line seems a little slower getting started on the charge, but gets those holes open just the same."

"They're both about the same weight, and just about as tough." He added he thought Perry Moss, ace passer of Illinois, might do even better passing from the tail-back position than from the "T" adding:

"He'd have a little more time. He was schooled in the single wing in high school and before he went to Illinois."

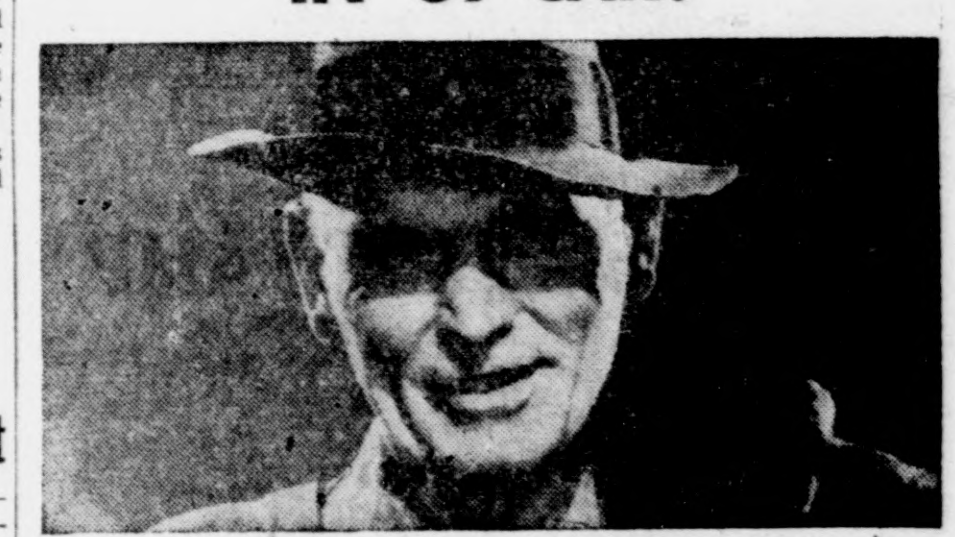

"But he still throws a plenty good pass and hits his receivers often enough to command the respect of all his opponents."

It should be a great game, what with probability of a Rose Bowl appearance and possibility of a national championship hanging on every play.

But Milligan, reticent as ever, wouldn't pick a favorite.

Most fruitful source of Louisiana State footballers is El Dorado (Ark.) high school, which turned out no less than five of the 1947 Tigers.

Test For New Law Is Likely

Law Prohibiting Strikes Of Public Employees May Be Tested In State

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22.—(INS)—Labor relations in at least three state welfare institutions may be drawn into a test of the two-months old law prohibiting strikes by public employees, it was reported by the Pennsylvania Council of Institutional Workers (AFL). The union may demand grievance machinery, provided as an alternative to strikes, for 1217 workers at the Torrance and Polk mental hospitals and Penhurst Home for the Feeble Minded.

Injection of hospitals operated by the welfare department into the test would provide a two-way evaluation of the "no strike" act and "fully determine the commonwealth's policy concerning employees' rights," it was claimed by Business Representative Robert P. Loneragan.

Initial application of the act was started on the basis of "dissatisfaction" among employees of the Hamburg Tuberculosis sanatorium operated and administered by the health department.

Welfare institutions were "administrative entities" controlled by trustees, Loneragan explained, and called for another type of procedure.

"We were tossed back and forth between the trustees and the department in trying to negotiate for employees," he alleged. "Both groups disclaimed jurisdiction."

The matter will be discussed during the annual three-day convention of institutional workers opening in Harrisburg Saturday, he said.

Powerful New Plane Tested

HAWTHORNE, Calif., Oct. 22.—(INS)—The world's most powerful airplane, Northrop's giant eight-jet bomber, the YB-49 Flying Wing, made its initial test flight Tuesday.

Two jets of black smoke poured from the huge airship as it pulled almost straight up into the California sky halfway down the 5,000-foot runway at Northrop field.

The bomber, piloted by Max Stanley, was roaring along the concrete at 135 miles-per-hour when lifted into the air.

With Stanley at the controls of the U. S. Army Air Forces plane were Co-Pilot Fred Bretcher and Flight Engineer Orva H. Douglas. The tail-less airplane's eight-jet engines have a potential combined output of 32,000 horsepower.

The plane was to undergo extensive tests later today at Muroc Army air base.
